Scope and Content Note

The papers of Lavinia L. Dock (1858-1956) span the years 1908-1949, with the bulk of the material dating from 1935 to 1948. The papers include correspondence, news clippings, printed matter, photographs, and collected writings by others on nursing. Almost all of the papers concern Dock's work in public health nursing and with the International Council of Nurses, the American Association of the Red Cross, and the Henry Street Settlement in New York City. Many of her letters reflect Dock's enthusiastic support of the Soviet Union and world socialism, both before and after World War II, and her efforts to bring Russian nurses into the International Council of Nurses.
