Administrative Information

Provenance

The papers of Thomas Terry Connally, United States Senator from Texas, were given to the Library of Congress by Connally in 1952 and 1953. Small additions were given by Mrs. Thomas T. Connally and others between 1977 and 1994.

Processing History

The Connally Papers were processed prior to 1958, when the Library published Tom Connally, a Register of His Papers in the Library of Congress. The collection was revised and expanded with the addition of Part II in 2005. The finding aid was revised again in 2010.

Additional Guides

A press release on the Connally Papers was issued by the Library of Congress on 20 March 1953. A note on the collection also appeared in the Library's Information Bulletin, vol. 12, no.12 (23 March 1953), and the material was described in the Library of Congress Quarterly Journal of Current Acquisitions, vol. 10, no.3 (May 1953), p.159.

Copyright Status

Copyright in the unpublished writings of Tom Connally in these papers and in other collections of papers in the custody of the Library of Congress has been dedicated to the public.

Access and Restrictions

The Connally Papers are open to research. Researchers are advised to contact the Manuscript Reading Room prior to visiting. Many collections are stored off-site and advance notice is needed to retrieve these items for research use.

Microfilm

A microfilm edition of the scrapbooks in the Connally Papers is available on sixty-one reels. Consult reference staff in the Manuscript Division concerning availability for purchase or interlibrary loan. To promote preservation of the originals, researchers are required to consult the microfilm edition.

Scope and Content Note

The papers of Thomas Terry Connally (1877-1963) span the years 1896-1952, with the bulk of the material dating from 1929 to 1952. The papers relate primarily to Connally's years in the United States Senate and include correspondence, speeches, press releases, scrapbooks, voting records, printed matter, and photographs. The collection is organized largely as received in two parts. Part I contains twenty series: Diary, Correspondence, Political File, Legislation File, Texas File, Servicemen, Veterans, Postmasters, Current Jobs, Nominations, Thank You Letters, Commendatory File, Callers File, Mexican Claims, Speech File, Voting Records, Miscellany, Clippings, Scrapbooks, and Oversize. Part II is comprised of a small addition.

The Correspondence series in Part I is lacking for the years 1932-1938, 1941, and 1944, and the file is fragmentary for the years 1939, 1940, 1942, 1943 and 1945. In addition to the Correspondence series, files in Part I cover a wide array of constituent issues. Prominent topics include veterans concerns and affairs, political campaigns, immigration, tidelands oil, the American Mexican Claims Commission, defense, and atomic energy. The Speech File includes speeches, remarks, and press releases primarily from Connally's years in the Senate. The papers indicate the senator's support for such issues as the United Nations, the European Recovery Program, the North American Treaty Organization, aid to China, and his participation in inter-American relations and in the tidelands oil controversy.

Scrapbooks documenting Connally's career from 1915 to 1952 are available only on microfilm. With the exception of the scrapbooks, there are very few papers in this collection from Connally's service in the Texas legislature or in the United States House of Representatives. Among his Senate papers is a Legislation File consisting primarily of public reaction to Connally's legislative program on foreign affairs and on such domestic issues as tidelands oil, taxes, national defense, rivers and harbors, labor bills, and anti-lynching legislation.

A file on atomic energy records Connally's service as a member of the Senate Atomic Energy Committee. A Texas File relates to patronage, federal aid to Texas, veterans, and servicemen. Other files include constituent mail, personal correspondence, voting records, clippings, photographs, and pamphlets.

Correspondents include James A. Farley, Alger Hiss, Cordell Hull, Lyndon B. Johnson, Pat McCarran, Harlan Fiske Stone, and Harry S. Truman.

An addition of miscellaneous material is organized as Part II of the papers.

Organization of the Papers
