

OFFICERS OF THE SENATE

Continue in Office Until Replaced:

The officers of the Senate continue in their positions until their successors are appointed by the Senate, unless otherwise provided or specified.<sup>1</sup> In the revision of the rules in 1884, a proposal by the Committee on Rules as a standing rule for the election of the officers of the Senate was rejected;<sup>2</sup> it is now done by resolution.

Election of Officers:

A majority, and not a plurality, vote is required to elect a President pro tempore and other officers of the Senate.<sup>3</sup>

The Secretary of the Senate is not elected by ballot, but by a resolution or order of the Senate.<sup>4</sup>

Gratuity Payments Upon Death of Employees:

In the 83d Congress, First Session, the Committee on Rules and Administration adopted a policy fixing a graduated scale of gratuity payments in connection with deaths of employees of the Senate.<sup>5</sup>

Oath of Officers:

Certain officers are not required to take the oath in the presence of the Senate.<sup>6</sup>

ORDER OF THE SENATE

A unanimous consent agreement providing for a vote on the final passage of a bill on a specified day operates, under Rule XII, as an order of the Senate.<sup>1</sup>

A unanimous consent agreement providing for a vote on a specified day upon a bill through the regular parliamentary stages to its final disposition operates as an order of the Senate.<sup>2</sup>

An order of the Senate (which results from the adoption of a resolution or the granting of a unanimous consent request) requiring Senators to vote from their desks, has the same force and effect as the provision of the Standing Rules of the Senate.<sup>3</sup>

It is not appropriate to adopt an order of the Senate to request a report by committee staff members.<sup>4</sup>
