

Activities Not covered by FACA

- Meetings to obtain Recommendations or advice from one individual
- Meetings with more than one individual to obtain advice of individual attendees and not for the purpose of obtaining group or consensus advice or recommendations
- Meetings initiated by a group to express groups' view (not to be used recurrently or as a preferred source or advice)
- Meetings of two or more advisory committee members or subcommittee members solely to gather information or conduct research, analyze, draft position papers for a chartered advisory committee
- Meetings with a group initiated by federal officials to exchange facts or information
- Meetings with a group that are not actually managed or controlled by the executive branch.

March 29, 2004