Harriet Antiporowich Named Director for Network Services

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Harriet Antiporowich will be the new Director for Network Services at the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, said Chief Information Officer Steve M. Yohai. She will manage nationwide telecommunications and computer operations for the OCC.

Ms. Antiporowich most recently managed all computer operations and telecommunications at the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) where she served as Information Technology Group Director, beginning in 1994. She also served in other information technology positions at HUD and was Administrator of Arlington National Cemetery from 1985 to 1987.

Antiporowich earned a B.A. degree in economics from Towson University, Towson, Maryland, in 1974.
