

William D. Haas
Deputy Comptroller
Midsized Bank Supervision

William D. Haas is Deputy Comptroller for Midsized Bank Supervision in the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC).

Mr. Haas' Midsized Bank Supervision portfolio includes a group of companies with assets ranging from $5 billion to $50 billion in assets, as well as a number of nationally chartered institutions whose activities are limited to credit card lending. He assumed the Deputy Comptroller position in April, 2008.

Mr. Haas started his career with the OCC in 1984 in Grand Island, Nebraska, and was commissioned as a National Bank Examiner in 1988. He served as field examiner based in Minneapolis from 1986 to 1994. In 1994, Mr. Haas transferred to Large Bank Supervision, where he served as the Commercial Credit Lead Examiner at Norwest Corporation, and later as a member of the credit team at US Bank.

In March 2003, Mr. Haas became the Assistant Deputy Comptroller for Midsized Bank Supervision.

Mr. Haas graduated in 1984 from Hastings College, Hastings, Nebraska, with a degree in business administration and political science.

