

Poster Sessions I
Public Private Partnerships for Health Equity
Monday, December 17, 2012

POSTER NO.	PRIMARY AUTHOR	ABSTRACT TITLE
T13-001	Mary Kate Brousseau	Alleviate the "Pain" in the System: Using process improvement and systems design tools to strive for a High Quality Breast Healthcare System in the District of Columbia metro area.
T13-002	Charlene Cole	Utilizing participatory data collection to drive policy change towards health equity in Northwest Detroit
T13-005	Eileen Hanrahan	Effective Communication in Hospitals Initiative: Lessons Learned/Change Achieved
T13-006	Avril Houston	Maintaining the Safety Net: The Role of HRSA Health Center Programs in Emergency Preparedness and Response
T13-007	Margarita Irizarry-Ramirez	Clinical, Research and Academic Institutions Partnership Model Directed Towards the Elimination of Health Disparities in a Hispanic Community
T13-008	Kathryn Kietzman	Strategies for reducing disparities in the use of clinical preventive services among older adults in community settings
T13-009	Lia Losonczy	The Severity of Disparity: Increasing Injury Intensity Accentuates Disparate Outcomes Following Trauma
T13-011	Karen O'Quin	Growing Healthy Together": An example of how a community-hospital-university partnership can mobilize communities toward healthy environments and lifestyles
T13-012	Rosalind Parker	Building healthy youth through community-based drug use education and leadership development: The Wards 7 and 8 DC Prevention Center
T13-013	Robert Peterson	Health Benefits Counseling: New Health IT Tools to Reduce Avoidable Health Disparities
T13-015	Winston Tseng	Connecting the Dots: Promoting Health Equity for Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, and Pacific Islander (AA and NHPI) Populations
T13-016	Natalie Vajda	The DC Citywide Patient Navigator Network (CPNN): Breaking Down Barriers for Cancer Patients
T13-017	Faye Williams	Reducing Health Disparities Through Digital Access: The Benefits of Partnership