

For two years after you leave government, you may not contact a government official on behalf of another concerning work pending under your official responsibility, regardless of your personal participation. 18 U.S.C. § 207(a)(2).

For more information please contact: