NR NR

TUP SECRET SUEDE

6 5 w/ 5/ CIB

FAR EAST

	4 July 51	available to the 8th Army, the Chinese Communist Field Commander in Korea, General Peng Teh-huai, advised CCF tactical commanders on 1 July the	at Chinese delegates to the cease-fire negotiations represent a victori	ious army, that South Korean demands will be obtations prove unsatisfactory, the CCF will launch their summer offe commands of the CCF Third and Fourth Field Armies informed General	Peng of the movement of 80,000 new "volun-
•	teers" from Manchuria to the Korean front. The US Far East Command endorses the 8th Army warning that, should this report be true, no
	Further, the time gained	by the enemy during extended negotiations
1	Further, the time gained would permit them to con	by the enemy during extended negotiations centrate forces equal to or greater than those
t	Further, the time gained would permit them to con employed during the Apri	by the enemy during extended negotiations centrate forces equal to or greater than those I offensive and to construct and repair forward
l.	Further, the time gained would permit them to con	by the enemy during extended negotiations centrate forces equal to or greater than those I offensive and to construct and repair forward
.	Further, the time gained would permit them to con employed during the Apri	by the enemy during extended negotiations centrate forces equal to or greater than those I offensive and to construct and repair forward
4 -	Further, the time gained would permit them to con employed during the Apri	by the enemy during extended negotiations centrate forces equal to or greater than those I offensive and to construct and repair forward
2.	Further, the time gained would permit them to con employed during the Apri airfields for close air su	by the enemy during extended negotiations centrate forces equal to or greater than those I offensive and to construct and repair forward
2.	Further, the time gained would permit them to con employed during the Apri airfields for close air su	by the enemy during extended negotiations centrate forces equal to or greater than those I offensive and to construct and repair forward pport. es his views on Asian situation:
2.	Further, the time gained would permit them to con employed during the Apri airfields for close air supering Kai-shek expressed	by the enemy during extended negotiations centrate forces equal to or greater than those I offensive and to construct and repair forward pport. es his views on Asian situation: Chiang Kai-shek observed privately to the
2.	Further, the time gained would permit them to con employed during the Apri airfields for close air su	by the enemy during extended negotiations centrate forces equal to or greater than those I offensive and to construct and repair forward pport. es his views on Asian situation:
2.	Further, the time gained would permit them to con employed during the Apri airfields for close air supering Kai-shek expressed	by the enemy during extended negotiations centrate forces equal to or greater than those I offensive and to construct and repair forward pport. es his views on Asian situation: Chiang Kai-shek observed privately to the US Charge at Taipei on 30 June that the
2.	Further, the time gained would permit them to con employed during the Apri airfields for close air supering Kai-shek expressed	by the enemy during extended negotiations centrate forces equal to or greater than those I offensive and to construct and repair forward pport. es his views on Asian situation: Chiang Kai-shek observed privately to the US Charge at Taipei on 30 June that the Chinese Communists in Korea badly needed a respite and quite likely would agree to a
2.	Further, the time gained would permit them to con employed during the Apri airfields for close air supering the supering t	by the enemy during extended negotiations centrate forces equal to or greater than those I offensive and to construct and repair forward pport. es his views on Asian situation: Chiang Kai-shek observed privately to the US Charge at Taipei on 30 June that the Chinese Communists in Korea badly needed a respite and quite likely would agree to a

_ 3 _

TOP SECRET SUEDE

APPROVED FOR RELEASE DATE: 19-Feb-2010