TOP SHCRUT

SECTION 1 (SOVIET)

Soviet Ambassador to the Chinese People's Republic, left by plane on 3 August for Moscow, according to Radio Peiping.  Comment: As far as is known, this is Roshchin's first visit to Moscow since he returned to Peiping in March 1950. In view of current negotiation in Korea and the impending conference on the Japanese peace treaty, it is likely that his return is for consultation on these questions. Moreover, Roshchin's presence in Moscow at this time lends significance to the recent return and continued stay there of high-level Soviet diplomats from Afghanistan, Pakistan and India.
