Comment: While it has been fairly well accepted that certain organized Soviet units are serving covertly in Korea as technicains and antiaircraft gunners, the presence of a concentration of 3,000 near Kaechon is unconfirmed. It is entirely possible that small Soviet units are located in Sariwon and near Pyongyang.

Communist strategy at Kaesong: A revealing commentary on Communist strategy in breaking off the conference at Kaesong may be seen in a 22 August article (written prior to the break-off) by Alan Winnington, correspondent for the British Communist "Daily Worker." Winnington notes that "it becomes increasingly clear the Americans are trying to maintain tension to pressurize the Japan peace signatories." He warns that "further measures will certainly be taken by the Koreans and Chinese...to guarnatee the neutrality" of the zone, if the UN does not provide a satisfactory answer for an earlier incident. (NCNA Peiping, 23 Aug 51).

Comment: This is the first incident noted of the Communist association of the coming Japanese peace treaty signing with the Kaesong talks. It is interesting that Winnington's 22 August article was not released until 23 August after the talks had been broken off.
