TOP SECRET SUEDE

24 Nov 51 C1B

FAR EAST

impression" there that the Chinese Communists, with their forces near the 38th parallel, now "genuinely desire" a cease-fire in Korea. If the cease-fire talks fail China's attitude will stiffen, and that the US cannot "drive back the Chinese and gain more favorable terms." Comment: have been reporting for months an "impression" of a genuine Chinese Communist desire for a cease-fire in Korea, and, at the same time, an unwillingness to make major concessions. Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which Peiping's leaders wish to encourage.	with their forces near the 38th parallel, now "genuinely desire" a cease-fire in Korea. If the cease-fire talks fail China's attitude will stiffen, and that the US cannot "drive back the Chinese and gain more favorable terms." Comment: have been reporting for months an "impression" of a genuine Chinese Communist desire for a cease-fire in Korea, and, at the same time, an unwillingness to make major concessions. Judging from Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which
"genuinely desire" a cease-fire in Korea. If the cease-fire talks fail China's attitude will stiffen, and that the US cannot "drive back the Chinese and gain more favorable terms." Comment: have been reporting for months an "impression" of a genuine Chinese Communist desire for a cease-fire in Korea, and, at the same time, an unwillingness to make major concessions. Judging from Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which	"genuinely desire" a cease-fire in Korea. If the cease-fire talks fail China's attitude will stiffen, and that the US cannot "drive back the Chinese and gain more favorable terms." Comment: have been reporting for months an "impression" of a genuine Chinese Communist desire for a cease-fire in Korea, and, at the same time, an unwillingness to make major concessions. Judging from Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which that the US cannot "drive back the Chinese and gain more favorable terms." Comment: have been reporting for months an "impression" of a genuine Chinese Communist desire for a cease-fire in Korea, and, at the same time, an unwillingness to make major concessions. Judging from Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which	Comment: have been reporting for months an "impression" of a genuine Chinese Communist desire for a cease-fire in Korea, and, at the same time, an unwillingness to make major concessions. Judging from Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which have been reporting for months an "impression" of a genuine Chinese Communist desire for a cease-fire in Korea, and, at the same time, an unwillingness to make major concessions. Judging from Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which	Comment: have been reporting for months an "impression" of a genuine Chinese Communist desire for a cease-fire in Korea, and, at the same time, an unwillingness to make major concessions. Judging from Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which have been reporting for months an "impression" of a genuine Chinese Communist desire for a cease-fire in Korea, and, at the same time, an unwillingness to make major concessions. Judging from Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which	have been reporting for months an "impression" of a genuine Chinese Communist desire for a cease-fire in Korea, and, at the same time, an unwillingness to make major concessions. Judging from Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which have been reporting for months an "impression" of a genuine Chinese Communist desire for a cease-fire in Korea, and, at the same time, an unwillingness to make major concessions. Judging from Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which	have been reporting for months an "impression" of a genuine Chinese Communist desire for a cease-fire in Korea, and, at the same time, an unwillingness to make major concessions. Judging from Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which Communist desire for a cease-fire in Korea, and, at the same time, an unwillingness to make major concessions. Judging from Pelping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which	Communist desire for a cease-fire in Korea, and, at the same time, an unwillingness to make major concessions. Judging from Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which willingness to make major concessions. Judging from Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which	willingness to make major concessions. Judging from Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which	Peiping's propaganda on Korea, the above views appear to be those which
Peiping's leaders wish to encourage.	Peiping's leaders wish to encourage.

A

TOP SECRET SUEDE

APPROVED FOR RÉLEASEDATE: 16-Dec-2009