Thank you for using IPRR. An e-mail message acknowledging your e-Recordation application should arrive at the primary e-mail address supplied on the first page of this application. If this was a credit transaction, a second email message will arrive confirming the credit transaction. You will receive an additional e-mail message when your application has been approved and the recordation becomes effective. If CBP has any questions concerning your application, we will call or e-mail the point-of-contact listed on the first page of the application.

Please print your application for future reference.

If you wish to inform us of any potentially infringing merchandise, please contact CBP at iprr.questions@dhs.gov .

If available, please provide samples or digital images of the allegedly infringing merchandise along with names and addresses of the manufacturer, importer, and/or consignee of the allegedly infringing merchandise. Any other pertinent information, such as ports of entry, tariff classification, or dates of importation would also help CBP ensure IPR protection of your merchandise.
