German-American friendship week introduces Soldiers to local culture

By Sina Kingsbury,
USAG Bamberg Public Affairs

BAMBERG, Germany -- The city of Bamberg invited 57 single Soldiers to tour downtown Bamberg, followed by dinner and drinks at a local brewery on Friday.

This yearly event, hosted during German-American friendship week, gives Soldiers an opportunity to learn about and become acquainted with their temporary home.

"It is a good tradition during German-American friendship week for the city of Bamberg to invite young American Soldiers to dinner every year," said Andreas Starke, Bamberg's lord mayor. "This way you, dear young Soldiers, are to become familiar with the city of Bamberg, which for some time will be your duty station."

"Hopefully, it will become a home away from home," Starke said.

The Soldiers began their tour at tourist information and were then guided through Bamberg's cobblestone streets.

The tour group made their way through Bamberg's town hall buildings, Schlenkerla Brewery, the New Residence and the Bamberg Cathedral.

A local tour guide shows newly arrived Soldiers the sights of Bamberg on Friday as a part of German-American friendship week. The event takes place each year.

Sina Kingsbury

Spc. June Baylon, 4th 319th Airborne Field Artillery Regiment, 173rd Airborne Brigade Combat Team and newly stationed to Warner Barracks said the tour was interesting and educational.

"I saw places I never expected to see here, like all of the old buildings," Baylon said.

Summer Hire applications due May 20

By Sina Kingsbury,
USAG Bamberg Public Affairs

BAMBERG, Germany -- U.S. Army Europe's Summer Hire program offers high school and college students an opportunity to gain meaningful job experience while preparing for future educational and career goals.

Applications for the 2012 Summer Hire program are currently being accepted. The application deadline is May 20. The program will begin June 18 and will end July 28.

Applicants must go online to apply at <https://injobs.army.mil/sh/staffing/asp/employment/t9.asp>.

Once the applicants have submitted the documents online, they will receive a notification via email from Civilian Personnel Advisory Center, said Claudette

Harden, human resource specialist at U.S. Army Bamberg's CPAC.

Summer Hire applicants must be family members of an active duty member or a Department of Defense civilian and 14 to 22 years of age. The candidate must turn 14 years of age by June 20 and cannot reach their 23rd birthday prior to end of the program on July 28.

If applicants are not able to work the full six weeks, CPAC will work with the applicant, Harden said.

"Currently, there are 16 Summer Hire positions here," Harden said. "The pay is $5.50 an hour."

Summer Hire positions are placed into three categories; labor, clerical and child development.

Celebration will showcase Asian-Pacific cultures, traditions

By Heidi Sanders,
USAG Bamberg Public Affairs

BAMBERG, Germany – Community members can get a taste of Asian-Pacific culture from 1-3 p.m. Saturday at the Warner Conference Center. May is Asian-Pacific American Heritage month.

The celebration will showcase the customs and traditions of various Asian-Pacific cultures, said Lily Markey, one of the event's organizers.

Community members, including children, parents and Soldiers, will perform a variety of dance and musical routines. A professional dance company from Berlin, which specializes in traditional Pacific Islander dances including Samoan, Tahitian and Hawaiian, also will perform.

The event will feature a traditional Hawaiian pig roast. Markey said in past years, the event has included a pig roasted on a rotisserie, but this year Capt. Pete Lole, who is of Hawaiian descent, volunteered to prepare the pig using the traditional Hawaiian method of roasting the pig in the ground on hot coals.

"That will be one of the biggest highlights," Markey said.

Dancers perform during last year's Asian-Pacific American Heritage Month celebration. This year's event will feature local performers as well dancers from Berlin.

Attendees will have the opportunity to sample various Asian-Pacific cuisines prepared by volunteers in the community, including Chamorro, Filipino, Hawaiian, Indian, Indonesian, Japanese, Korean, Samoan and Thai.

Markey said organizers plan to have the event outside the Warner Conference Center. A stage will be set up with seating for about 300 people.

"If it is bad weather, which we are not expecting, we will still hold it but with limited seating in the ball room," she said.

For more information, call 0951-300-8750.

Lights Out Comedy Tour, Mongolian buffet offered Monday evening

By Heidi Sanders, USAG Bamberg Public Affairs

BAMBERG, Germany -- The Lights Out Comedy Tour, presented by Armed Forces Entertainment, will make a stop here on Monday.

A Mongolian grill buffet will be offered before the show begins. Both the buffet and show will take place at the Warner Conference Center.

"Weather permitting, we are going to do this outdoors," said Jack Austin, U.S. Army Garrison Bamberg's entertainment director. "It might be a night-on-the-terrace-type thing."

The buffet costs $13 per person. Doors open at 5:30 p.m. and food will be served beginning at 6 p.m. The comedy show is free and begins at 7:30 p.m.

"One does not have to do the dinner to come to the show," Austin said.

The Lights Out Comedy Tour features comedians Johnny Cardinale, Sean Kent, Assad Motavasseli, Mark Serritella and Maria Shehata.

"It will be a great show," Austin said. "Almost all of these guys have had some primetime experience."

The comedy show is for adults age 18 and older. Austin said those who attend the comedy show should look forward to a memorable evening.

"We have had three or four comedy shows in my time here," he said. "Every show has been sidesplitting."

For more information about the Lights Out Comedy Tour, visit <http://www.armedforcesentertainment.com/johnnycardinale2012.htm>. For more information about the buffet, call the Warner Conference Center at 0951-300-7596.

Red Cross assists Soldiers and family members in times of need

By Jessica Lipari, USAG Bamberg Public Affairs

BAMBERG, Germany -- Staying in touch with loved ones during an emergency situation is an important service provided by the American Red Cross.

In Bamberg, the American Red Cross aids in the sending of emergency messages to Soldiers and their family members living overseas or deployed.

The American Red Cross opens this line of communication to ensure "you're never out of touch...around the clock...around the world," according to its brochure.

The specific term for emergency is an unexpected event, time sensitive and requires the Soldier present for action, said Samantha Wudel, Bamberg American Red Cross station manager.

This includes death and serious illness of immediate family members, births, financial situations and family care plans.

Immediate family members include an individual's mother and father, siblings, spouse and children and their spouse's mother, father and siblings.

Information sent for grandparents are not considered immediately family by the military unless it is listed in the Soldier's military records that they are in loco parentis.

"There are always one of incidents," Wudel said. "When in doubt call, the Red Cross will address the situation. If notification is not the right solution we will get them to the right person that can help."

Red Cross does not make the leave or travel decisions; they get verification of the information and provide the command team with the information.

Through a partnership with Army Emergency Relief, the American Red Cross can help provide financial assistance for emergency travel, burial of a loved one or food and shelter.

This service is provided when the individual requiring financial aid is not within 50 miles of a military aid office and the situation is time sensitive, Wudel said.

Red Cross will refer individuals to the nearest AER office if time permits and an aid office is nearby.

There are three ways to start an emergency communication:

1. Call your local Red Cross chapter. Locate at www.redcross.org.
2. Call the Red Cross office on your base installation, 0951-300-1760.
3. Call 1-800-RED CROSS and select option 2.

When calling the Red Cross, please provide as much of the following information about the service member as is known:

- Full name
- Rank/rating
- Branch of service (Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, Coast Guard or Department of Defense civilian or contractor)
- Social Security Account number
- Date of Birth
- Military address
- For deployed service members only: Information about the deployed unit and home base unit

For more information, visit www.redcross.org or stop by the station office located in Building 7029.

Rwanda to benefit from Army library books

BRUCHMUEHLBACH-MIESAU, Germany (May 4, 2012) -- Books from the Miesau Army Depot library will soon be helping Rwandans learn English, thanks in part to a retired U.S. Army officer and his wife.

Miesau's books will have a new home at the Saint Joseph Integrated Technical College in Rwanda's capital...

Greifenklau Brewery for schnitzel and beer.

Starke welcomed the Soldiers and spoke of the friendship between Germans and Americans here in Bamberg.

A friendship, which Starke likened to Bamberg's liquid staple: beer.

"Currently, there are nine breweries, which brew different beers, in the city of Bamberg alone," Starke said. "However, there is one thing these beers have in common: they are brewed in accordance with the purity requirements, only natural ingredients and no artificial supplements."

"The same holds true for German-American friendship, there are many varieties but the basic ingredients remain the same," Starke said. "For beer, it's hops, malt and water."

"For German-American friendship, it's a deep trust, mutual respect and a great fondness for one another," he said.

Starke invited the newest Soldier to Bamberg, Pvt. Antoine Avery of the 16th Sustainment Brigade, to tap a keg of beer to toast to German-American friendships.

Labor positions are physical in nature and may include mowing, cleaning or painting. Clerical positions are in an office environment and duties may include filing, answering phones or typing. Child development positions involve child care.

"Majority of the jobs offered here are labor and a few are in child care," Harden said. "Applicants can't request a place to work but have the option to choose the type of job."

Applicants who narrow their preferences will lessen their chance of being selected for a position, she said.

Returning Summer Hires may request to work at a previous position.

Applicants will be assigned a position based on what they choose on the application.

If there are more applicants than positions, older applicants will be chosen first, Harden said.

Welfare Request Deadline Extended

The Bamberg Spouses and Civilians' Club has added an additional deadline for welfare requests for this year. Clubs and organizations are encouraged to submit welfare requests by May 17 to be considered by the committee. Please ensure that you fill out all portions of the request and provide as much detail as you can, incomplete forms will not be considered. Application forms can be picked up and submitted at the Thrift Shop and are also available on the BSCC website www.bsccbamberg.org. BSCC is committed to giving back to the great community that supports the Bamberg Soldiers and Families. We do this by providing public organizations with welfare grants. The purpose of the grants is to assist organizations in meeting their financial burdens associated with supporting our military community. We aim to help those organizations already working to help themselves. The BSCC is striving to make our garrison and community a better place in which to live.

Trial Defense Services

If you're a Soldier and you are questioned by law enforcement, Criminal Investigation Division or members of your command about suspected acts of misconduct, you have the absolute right to remain silent. You have the right to refuse to answer any question, even from your commander and you have the right to talk to an attorney. If questioned, you should immediately demand to speak to an attorney. As a Soldier, you are entitled to free consultation and representation by a military defense counsel. All communications with a trial defense attorney are privileged and will not be released to your command. Let a U.S. Army trial defense attorney help you. For more information, call 0951-300-8620 or come to Building 7000 to speak to a free trial defense attorney.

Pertussis Prevention

Pertussis, or whooping cough, is on the rise. It affects people of all ages, is most severe in children and can be fatal in infants. Immunizations children get to protect against this disease wanes with time. Unimmunized, infected adults can unknowingly spread pertussis to children. Symptoms in adults can appear like a common cold and develop into violent coughing. Preventing the spread of the disease is possible. To protect yourself but, most importantly, the children of our community, we urge adults to be vaccinated against pertussis. Ask your health clinic professionals about the Tetanus, Diphtheria and Pertussis vaccine or T-DAP.

Youth and Teens

Eco-Friendly Tips

Water-saving Tips

1. Think before throwing used water down the drain, e.g. water in a pan after cooking. This could be reused for watering plants around the house or in the garden when cooled down.
2. Install a rainwater tank in the garden to collect the rain water. This will mean you always have water for watering the garden without the need to use fresh water from the hose.

Energy-saving Tips

1. Don't leave your mobile phone charging all night – it only needs a couple of hours.
2. Towel dry your hair thoroughly to cut down the time you'll have to use your hairdryer.

Recycling Tips

1. Use canvas bags instead of plastic bags for shopping. It takes up to 1,000 years for a plastic bag to decompose.
2. Read up on the recycling rules for your area and make sure you don't send anything in that can't be processed. Each city has its own specifics, so try to follow those guidelines as best you can.
