2012 IPR Center Symposium Tackling Emerging Threats

September 20, 2012
8:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

National Intellectual Property Rights Coordination Center
IPR Center Auditorium- Suite 150
2451 Crystal Drive
Arlington, VA 20598-5105

The National Intellectual Property Rights Coordination Center (IPR Center), in Arlington, Virginia, is hosting a symposium to address emerging IP threats. The symposium will highlight a number of growing threats, including corporate identity theft, Operation In Our Sites and 981K seizures, and the theft of trade secrets. The symposium will address the impact of these threats, the various issues surrounding them, and the interventions being undertaken by the public and private sectors to address these issues. The symposium will bring together law enforcement, rights holders, and industry experts working to fight IP theft, and offers an excellent opportunity for attendees to meet key players involved in tackling these threats.

How to Register?

Registration is open to law enforcement, rights holders, industry experts, third-party service providers and academics.

1. Complete the attached “2012 IPR Center Symposium” registration form.
2. Submit registration form to IPRCenterOutreach@dhs.gov by September 7, 2012.
3. Receive registration confirmation letter from IPR Center Outreach. Please maintain this letter for your records.
