SUBJECT: Acquisition Flexibility for Urgent Needs

We are challenged every day to solicit industry, award and modify contracts, deliver capability and make payment faster. Speed is increasingly a critical measure of success particularly as we support overseas military operations and the defense against terrorism. As we create strategies to quickly meet these needs, we should use the flexibility of FAR and DoD FAR Supplement (DFARS) authorities that exist to support urgent situations and national security requirements. In those circumstances where you are specifically precluded from taking actions you determine necessary, I expect you to support, authorize or seek appropriate deviations and give me feedback.

The Air Force recently issued guidance highlighting many existing techniques for rapid, agile contracting support (available at <http://www.acq.osd.mil/dpap>). I wholeheartedly support these techniques and urge you to put them into practice where appropriate. Recently, we published significant changes to the FAR authorized by the Homeland Security Act. These authorities, coupled with DoD's temporary emergency procurement authority, increase the thresholds for using simplified acquisition procedures. They also allow us to treat buys that directly support defense against or recovery from terrorism or chemical, biological, nuclear or radiological attack as commercial items with no dollar limitation for use of simplified acquisition procedures. These are bold opportunities, if used with diligence, can achieve significant results for our customers. You may find the attached matrix helpful in promoting the use of these authorities.

I challenge the acquisition leadership to push new and existing authorities to the contracting officer and aggressively pursue and approve FAR and DFARS deviations when needed. Please let me know when you identify opportunities to improve processes, shorten cycle times, and enhance responsiveness to the customer. Our web site to collect this information is www.acq.osd.mil/dp/dars/transf. We will use your input to assess results and make needed changes.

Please pass on my gratitude to the acquisition workforce for their continued dedication and commitment to the Department's mission. My points of contact are Ms. Angelena Moy (DPAP/DARS) at (703) 602-1302 or e-mail: angelena.moy@osd.mil and Mr. William Timperley (DPAP/Policy) at (703) 697-8336 or e-mail: william.timperley@osd.mil.
