Procedures For Incorporating CJCSI 6212.01D
Net-ready Key Performance Parameter (NR KPP)
Requirements in Capabilities Documents

1. Capabilities documents supporting a Milestone B or Milestone C decision through 30 September 2006, including those currently in staffing or the JROC review process, will include one of the following:

    a. The Interoperability and Supportability requirements, including the NR-KPP, listed in CJCSI 6212.01C (dated 20 November 2003).

    b. The Interoperability and Supportability requirements, including the NR-KPP, listed in CJCSI 6212.01D (dated 8 March 2006).

2. After 30 September 2006, all capabilities documents supporting a Milestone B or Milestone C decision will submit according to the interoperability and supportability requirements in CJCSI 6212.01D.

3. All previously approved capabilities and current capability documents will update at the program's next Joint Capabilities Integration and Development System required capability document submission.

    a. Update the NR-KPP with the statement contained in CJCSI 6212.01D.

    b. Update the Key Interface Profile (KIP) declaration to reflect the DOD Information Technology Standards Repository (DISR) mandated KIPs in accordance with CJCSI 6212.01D.

4. All capabilities documents regardless of milestone and submission date are no longer required to submit the Levels of Information Systems Interoperability (LISI) and Interconnectivity and Interoperability Capability (IIC) Profiles.
