

DEPUTY ASSISTANT INSPECTOR GENERAL
FOR AUDIT - FINANCIAL SYSTEMS AND OPERATIONS AUDITS
Gale Stallworth Stone

Mrs. Stone serves as the Deputy Assistant Inspector General for Audit for the Social Security Administration's (SSA) Office of the Inspector General (OIG). Before her promotion to this position in 2000, Mrs. Stone served as the Director of the Systems and the Financial Audit Divisions for 3 years. Mrs. Stone began her 23 year Federal career as a Cooperative Education Student in the Birmingham, Alabama, Health and Human Services' OIG. Over the years, Mrs. Stone has received numerous awards including a 1996 Hammer Award, a 2002 Inspector General Award as well as recognition from the President's Council on Integrity and Efficiency with a 2004 Glenn Roth Award, a 2006 Award for Excellence, and a 2007 Barry Snyder PCIE/ECIE Joint Award.

Mrs. Stone is a Cum Laude' graduate of Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Alabama. She also holds a Masters of Science Degree in Information Systems from Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, Maryland and she is a Certified Public Accountant.