INTRODUCTION

This is a companion volume to the Final Report of the School Food Purchase Study-III. It consists of tables containing national estimates of foods acquired by public unified school districts participating in the National School Lunch Program (NSLP) in SY 2009/10. The methodology used in the derivation of these estimates is described in Chapter II and Appendix I of the Final Report.

The tables provide information for 865 individual food items. Each item is identified by food code and by name. School District food acquisitions are assigned to one of three categories: purchased foods, processed foods containing donated USDA Foods, or donated USDA Foods. Most of these tables provide values for each of these categories plus total acquisitions.

The following tables appear in the Appendix:

- Table 1: Individual food code classification system – This table describes the classification system used in developing the six-digit food codes that were assigned to individual food items.
- Table 2: Assignment of individual food items to food groups and subgroups – This table identifies the food group and subgroups to which each of the individual food items are assigned for purposes of data aggregation. There are 16 food groups and 67 subgroups.
- Table 3: Total estimated value of individual foods acquired by public unified NSLP school districts, SY 2009/10 – This table provides the dollar value of individual food item acquisitions. Donated USDA Foods and processed foods containing donated USDA Foods are valued at commercial values, not at USDA-assigned values. Totals appear at the end of the table.
- Table 4: Total estimated weight in pounds of individual foods acquired by public unified NSLP school districts, SY 2009/10 – This table provides the weight in pounds of individual food item acquisitions. Weights are net product weight in the form described. Totals appear at the end of the table.
- Table 5: Comparison of total estimated weight in pounds of individual foods acquired by public unified nslp school districts, SYs 1996/97 and 2009/10 – This table provides comparative information for 1996/97 and 2009/10 on the volume of acquired foods.
- Table 6: Number of public unified NSLP school districts reporting the acquisition of individual food items, SY 2009/10 – This table provides national estimates of the number of public unified school districts acquiring individual food items in SY 2009/10. To the extent individual food items are highly seasonal in their availability or, as in the case of some donated USDA Foods, are only distributed during parts of the year, these estimates might underestimate the true values.
- Table 7: Mean cost per pound of food items purchased by public unified NSLP school districts, SY 2009/10 – This table provides the mean per pound price paid for commercially purchased food items by school districts that purchased the item. It should be noted that all values assigned to processed foods containing donated USDA Foods are based on commercial prices paid for comparable purchased foods. Differences between the two are due to locational differences rather than to differences between purchased foods and processed products containing donated USDA Foods.

- Table 8: Value per 100,000 meal equivalents of food items acquired by NSLP school districts in SY 2009/10 – This table estimates the annual acquisition value of each individual food item for every 100,000 meal equivalents. (A meal equivalent is on lunch equals 1.5 breakfasts.)
- Table 9: Value per thousand students of food items acquired by public unified NSLP school districts, SY 2009/10 – This table estimates the annual acquisition value of each individual food item for every thousand students having access to the NSLP in SY 2009/10. Those students enrolled in NSLP schools but not having access to school meals were excluded from the calculation.
- Table 10: Comparison of the share of public unified NSLP school districts reporting the acquisition of individual food items, SYs 1996/97 and 2009/10 – This table compares the share of all school districts acquiring individual food items in 1996/97 and 2009/10.

Table I: Individual food code classification system

Each food item identified in the study was assigned a unique six – digit food code. The code numbers were developed using the following classification system:

| Digit | Item |
|--------------|--|
| 1 | General category (e.g. fruit) |
| 2 and 3 | Subcategories (e.g. peaches) |
| 4 | Specific characteristics (e.g. peaches in heavy syrup) |
| 5 | Form (e.g. canned) |
| 6 | Check digit |

Classification system by digit

General category
(first digit)
