

From: Phyllis Mason
Sent: Wednesday, June 30, 2004 12:37 PM
To: rfidworkshop
Subject: RFID tags

I am concerned about RFID tags because I am concerned about my privacy. I don't want every purchase I make recorded and the information possibly sold or passed on. I would prefer not to have these tags, or discount cards for that matter either, which are widespread. If the tags are used, they should be conspicuous so one can avoid the product.

Phyllis Mason