Training Middle

___ minutes

(Explain the topic in detail, demonstrate the concept and discuss it, and practice and apply the topic)

- Have participants think about some of the youth they serve in the program. Individually, have participants jot down ideas (high school or college planning, a formal presentation or competition, etc.) for how they think that youth would want their families involved in the program.
- Come back together as a group and share ideas that individuals brainstormed. Create a master list and have groups talk about the pro's and con's of different involvement ideas.
- Have participants choose their favorite involvement idea and form a small working group to create an action plan to make the idea a reality.
- Make sure participants action plans are specific with regard to time and responsibilities and identify potential challenges and how to overcome them.
- Have groups share involvement plans and other participants ask questions and give feedback. Decide on which, if not all, strategy or plan to try first and establish a timeline for progress, check-in's, and completion.
