

Operationalizing MITA 3.0

Thomas A. Baden Jr.

MITA Architect, Minnesota Department of Human Services

Medicaid Information Technology Architecture 3.0

MN.IT Services, Medicaid Operations MITA Plan

Our New DNA

- Modularity Standard
- MITA Condition
- Industry Standards Condition
- Leverage Condition
- Business Results Condition
- Reporting Condition
- Interoperability Condition

New Enterprise Web of Social Services Systems

- Health Insurance Exchange
- Health Care Eligibility
- Medicaid Management Information System
- Child Welfare
- Financial & Food Eligibility
- Child Support

Architecture

Business Architecture

- Anytime
- Any place
- Any channel

- ✓ Business Process
- ✓ Capability Maturity
- ✓ Functional Decomposition

Information Architecture

- Intelligent
- Informed
- Intuitive

- ✓ Data Management
- ✓ Conceptual Data Model
- ✓ Logical Data Model
- ✓ Data Standards
- ✓ Information Capabilities

Technical Architecture

- Incremental
- Integrated
- Component

- ✓ Technical Management
- ✓ Business Services
- ✓ Technical Services
- ✓ Application Architecture
- ✓ Technical Capability

Foundations

Service Delivery

Person Centric
Integrated Government
Channel Driven
Functional flexibilities

Service Effectiveness

Time to market
Program optimization
Service integration
Information driven

Cost Containment

Shared services
Shared effort contributions
Delete the blip
Soften exit barriers

A New Look @

MITA 3.0

Best regards,
Thomas Baden