ACCESS TO DISASTER HELP AND RESOURCES

Native Americans in disaster situations can register for help from the Federal government online at DisasterAssistance.gov following all presidentially declared disasters that have been designated for individual assistance.

Seventeen Federal agencies contribute to the user-friendly portal, which offers you applications for and information about over 70 forms of assistance. It also provides information on local resources available to disaster survivors. If you do not have Internet access, you may also register for assistance from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) by calling the disaster assistance call center at 1-800-621-3362. Disaster assistance applicants, who have a speech disability or hearing loss and use TTY, should call 1-800-462-7585 directly; for those who use 711 or Video Relay Service (VRS), call 1-800-621-3362.

Why use DisasterAssistance.gov?

1. Reduce the number of forms to fill out when you apply for assistance
2. Shorten the time it takes to apply for aid
3. Update and check the progress of your applications online
4. Identify opportunities to apply for assistance from multiple Federal agencies
