CASE NUMBER: 11-CR-30090-MJR

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall be restricted to her residence on home detention for a period of six months or until notified otherwise by the probation officer. The defendant shall be restricted to her residence at all times except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment; attorney visits; court appearances; court-ordered obligations; or other activities as pre-approved by the probation officer. The defendant shall be monitored by location monitoring technology as determined by the probation officer and shall abide by all technology requirements. Further, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of participation in the location monitoring program as directed by the Court and/or the probation officer.

The defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this judgment and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. Having assessed the defendant's ability to pay, payment of the total criminal monetary penalties shall be paid in equal monthly installments of $100, or ten percent of her net monthly income, whichever is greater, over a period of 59 months, to commence 30 days after release from imprisonment to a term of supervision.

The defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies.

The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.

The defendant shall participate in credit counseling as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall undergo a mental health assessment and participate in a program of mental health treatment, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. This may include a psychiatric evaluation and may require participation in a medication regimen. The defendant shall follow the medication regimen as prescribed by a licensed practitioner, at the direction of the probation officer. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with services rendered for counseling and/or testing based on a copay sliding fee scale, as directed and approved by the United States Probation Office. The copay shall never exceed the total costs of counseling.
