ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

FORT WORTH, TEXAS REGISTERED REPRESENTATIVE NAMED IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATIVE AND CEASE AND DESIST PROCEEDINGS

On May 17, the Commission instituted public administrative and cease and desist proceedings against Dennis E. Ward. In the order instituting proceedings, the Division of Enforcement alleges that Ward willfully aided and abetted violations of provisions of the federal securities laws prohibiting broker-dealers from effecting securities transactions by unregistered persons and which require broker-dealers to make and keep accurate books and records.

Specifically, in the order instituting proceedings, the Division of Enforcement alleges that from June 1995 until November 1997, Ward was employed as a registered representative in the Fort Worth office of Sunpoint Securities, Inc. (Sunpoint) a Longview, Texas broker-dealer formerly registered with the Commission. During his employment with Sunpoint, Ward signed subscription documents, new account forms and other documents falsely holding himself out as the registered representative for transactions. In fact, another registered representative associated with Sunpoint, who was not properly licensed, made the actual sales. Ward knew or reasonably should have known that the registered representative, who made the sales was not properly licensed. As a result of Ward's actions, Sunpoint failed to make and keep accurate books and records with respect to the purchase or sale of certain securities. (Rel. 34-44312; File No. 3-10485)

WALNUT SPRINGS, TEXAS REGISTERED REPRESENTATIVE CENSURED AND ORDERED TO CEASE AND DESIST

On May 17, the Commission censured Carolyn Birch Noonan, 45, of Walnut Springs, Texas. The action was pursuant to an order instituting and simultaneously settling public administrative proceedings charging that Noonan aided and abetted violations of the recordkeeping and registered representative licensing provisions, of the federal securities laws. Noonan was also ordered to cease and desist from future violations of those provisions.

Noonan, without admitting or denying the allegations, consented to findings that, from June 1996 until November 1997, she was employed as registered representatives in the Fort Worth office of Sunpoint Securities, Inc. (Sunpoint), a Longview, Texas broker-dealer formerly registered with the Commission. During her employment with Sunpoint, she signed subscription documents, new account forms and other documents falsely holding herself out as the registered representatives for transactions. In fact, another registered representative associated with Sunpoint, who was not properly licensed, made the actual sales. Noonan knew or reasonably should have known that the registered representative who made the sales was not properly licensed. As a result of Noonan's conduct, Sunpoint failed to make and keep accurate books and records with respect to the purchase or sale of certain securities. (Rel. 34-44313; File No. 3-10486)

FORT WORTH, TEXAS REGISTERED REPRESENTATIVE BARRED, ORDERED TO CEASE AND DESIST, ORDERED TO DISGORGE $168,000 AND ORDERED TO PAY A CIVIL PENALTY OF $75,000

On May 17, the Commission barred Larry W. Tyler, 46, of Fort Worth, Texas, from association with securities broker-dealers. The action was pursuant to an order instituting and simultaneously settling public administrative proceedings charging that Tyler violated the antifraud and registration provisions, and aided and abetted violations of the recordkeeping and registered representative licensing provisions, of the federal securities laws. Tyler was also ordered to cease and desist from future violations of those provisions, to pay disgorgement and prejudgment interest in the amount of $168,436.33, and to pay a civil penalty in the amount of $75,000.

Tyler, without admitting or denying the allegations, consented to findings that from at least August 1995 through June 1997, he was employed as registered representatives in the Fort Worth office of Sunpoint Securities, Inc. (Sunpoint), a Longview, Texas broker-dealer formerly registered with the Commission. During his employment with Sunpoint, he offered and sold to certain of his customers high-risk, illiquid and unsuitable private placement investments. In these sales, Tyler failed to disclose the high-risk, illiquid nature of these investments, failed to provide offering memoranda to customers, which would have disclosed the risk, and evaded the financial suitability requirements of the offerings by submitting false statements of net worth for customers who may not have otherwise qualified financially to purchase these securities. Tyler sold these private placements even though he was not properly licensed by convincing other properly licensed registered representatives, who had not participated in the offer and sale, to sign the subscription agreements and other paperwork for the sale. As a result of Tyler's conduct, Sunpoint failed to make and keep accurate books and records with respect to the purchase or sale of certain securities. (Rel. 33-7978; 34-44314; File No. 3-10487)

AMENDED RELEASE ISSUED

Litigation Release No. 17008, which appeared in yesterday's Digest, has been amended to read as follows:

CIVIL ACTION AGAINST CLUB ATLANTA TRAVEL, INC., DAVID STRAUB, FRANK GARNER, AND FRED GARNER

The Commission announced that the Honorable Charles A. Moye, Jr., United States District Judge for the Northern District of Georgia, entered an Order Regarding Disgorgement and Civil Penalty as to Frank Garner and Fred Garner (Garners), and a Judgment As To Defendant David L. Straub (Straub), pursuant to the Court's final judgment of permanent injunction as to the Garners and David L. Straub entered September 18, 1997. The Court ordered Frank Garner to pay disgorgement in the amount of $474,025.00, plus prejudgment interest, but waived payment of all but $13,448.00 and did not impose a civil penalty due to his demonstrated financial inability to pay. The Court ordered Fred Garner to pay disgorgement in the amount of $401,245.00, plus prejudgment interest, but waived payment of all but $33,250.00 and did not impose a civil penalty due to his demonstrated financial inability to pay. The Garners consented to the entry of this Order without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint. The Court ordered Straub to pay disgorgement in the amount of $878,789, plus prejudgment interest of $138,085.62. The Court did not impose a civil penalty because the Court found that Straub's assets were insufficient to pay all the disgorgement ordered against him.

On September 18, 1997, the Commission alleged in its complaint against the Garners, Straub, and Club Atlanta Travel, Inc. (CAT), that at least from November 1995, the defendants raised over $32,000,000 from approximately 24,000 investors across the United States and Canada by selling unregistered securities in the form of investment contracts using an instrument called a "CAT Pass." CAT paid out as commissions approximately $28,000,000, including commissions paid to the defendants. The Garners, Straub and CAT sold the securities to investors through false and misleading representations and omissions of material facts concerning, among other things: (a) the expected return on investment; (b) the financial stability and wherewithal of CAT; (c) the escrowing of investors' funds; (d) challenges to CAT by various states' Attorney General offices; and (e) Straub's background.

Without admitting or denying the allegations made against them in the Commission's complaint, the Garners and Straub consented to final judgments entered on September 18, 1997, which permanently enjoined them from the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, and were ordered to pay disgorgement with prejudgment interest and civil penalties in amounts to be determined at a later date. [SEC v. Club Atlanta Travel, Inc., David L. Straub, Frank Garner, and Fred Garner, Civil Action No. 1:97-CV-2774-RCF, NDGA] (LR-17008A)

COMMISSION OBTAINS A PERMANENT INJUNCTION AND OTHER RELIEF FROM VICTOR GRAUAUG

The Commission announced that Victor R. Grauaug, a former salesperson employed by Papa Holdings, Inc., based in Woodland Hills, California, was enjoined in a pending offering fraud action. On May 15, a Final Judgment by default was entered against Grauaug permanently enjoining him from future violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. The Final Judgment also orders Grauaug to pay $211,306 in disgorgement and a $110,000 civil penalty.

The Commission's complaint alleged that Grauaug made fraudulent representations in connection with his sales of the unregistered securities of three restaurant subsidiaries controlled by Papa Holdings. Papa Holdings and its restaurant subsidiaries raised over $21 million from approximately 1,300 investors nationwide from November 1995 to January 1999. Instead of opening new restaurants, the restaurant subsidiaries used the money to pay undisclosed commissions and to cover losses incurred by existing Papashon restaurants. None of the restaurant subsidiaries ever opened a restaurant and, due to their losses, existing Papashon Restaurants in Pasadena, Beverly Hills, Encino and Long Beach, California closed in 1999. SEC SETTLES CIVIL ACTION AGAINST SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS STOCKBROKER AND STOCK PROMOTER IN TOUTING CASE

The Commission announced today that the Honorable Jeanne E. Scott, United States District Judge for the Central District of Illinois, entered a Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Relief Against Defendant Troy Justus (Justus), restraining and enjoining him from violating the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. Justus consented to the entry of the judgment without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint. The Court further ordered that Justus pay disgorgement in the amount of $5,888, plus pre-judgment interest thereon. The Court, however, waived payment of the disgorgement and pre-judgment interest – and declined to impose civil penalties – based on Justus's demonstrated inability to pay.

The Commission's complaint, filed on January 7, 1999, alleged that Justus, along with co-defendants Wayne F. Gorsek, Lyndell Parks and P. Brenden Gebben, fraudulently promoted approximately 20 microcap companies through Strategic Investment Advisory, Inc. (SIA), a Springfield, Illinois-based company, in exchange for cash and securities. The Complaint alleged SIA deceived investors into believing that it was an independent securities research firm providing objective investment advice about "undiscovered" companies. In fact, the SEC alleged, SIA was merely a paid promotional firm that uncritically published glowingly optimistic recommendations of the securities of its clients in exchange for cash and securities.

The complaint further alleged that at the same time he was engaged in SIA's promotional scheme, Justus worked as a registered representative at Strategic Investments, Inc. (SII) (a broker-dealer owned by co-defendants Gorsek and Parks). The complaint alleged that as a registered representative at SII, Justus, Gorsek and Parks defrauded brokerage customers by recommending the purchase of securities issued by SIA clients without disclosing that they received cash and securities from the issuers of those securities.

Justus, without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint, has agreed to a settlement whereby he would be permanently enjoined from violating Sections 17(a) and 17(b) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act), and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. Justus has also agreed, upon entry of the final judgment in this action, to the issuance of a Commission order pursuant to Sections 15(b) and 19(h) of the Exchange Act that would bar him from association with any broker or dealer with a right to reapply after three years. [SEC v. Wayne F. Gorsek, Lyndell Parks, P. Brenden Gebben and Troy Justus, USDC, CD Ill., Springfield Division, Civil Action No. 99 CV 3072, JES] (LR-17010); (Administrative Proceedings – Rel. 34-44323, File No. 3-10488)
