ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

TRADING SUSPENSION ORDERED IN THE SECURITIES OF NOVATEK INTERNATIONAL, INC.

The Commission today announced the suspension of trading in the securities of Novatek International, Inc. from 9:30 a.m. EDT on October 15, 1996 until 11:59 EDT on October 28, 1996.

The Commission ordered this trading suspension because of questions raised as to the adequacy and accuracy of publicly-disseminated information about Novatek. This information concerns, among other things, Novatek's financial condition, including the valuation of certain assets reported on Novatek's financial statements. In light of these concerns, the Commission determined that the public interest and the protection of investors requires a suspension of trading in Novatek securities. (Rel. 34-37819)

PAUL PARSHALL BARRED

The Commission instituted administrative proceedings against Paul L. Parshall pursuant to Sections 15(b)(6), 17A(c)(4)(C) and 19(h) of the Exchange Act, Section 9(b) of the Investment Company Act and Section 203(f) of the Investment Advisers Act. Simultaneously, the Commission accepted an offer of settlement from Parshall in which he consented to the entry of an Order without admitting or denying the findings contained therein. The Order makes findings that willfully Parshall violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Act and Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 by setting up a new Utah corporation, Republic International Corporation (New Republic), to assume the identity of a defunct Utah corporation with the same name (Old Republic). While under Parshall's control New Republic misrepresented itself to be Old Republic in filings with the Commission and in documents supplied to Old Republic's market makers.

The Commission ordered that Parshall be barred from association with any broker, dealer, investment company, investment adviser, transfer agent, or municipal securities dealer and that Parshall be barred from participating in offerings of penny stock. (Rel. Nos. 34-37814; IA-1591; IC-22277)

COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST JAMES FALLER II AND ROLAN COLON

On September 30, a complaint was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida against James S. Faller, II (Faller) of Augusta, Georgia and Rolan Colon (Colon) of Hialeah, Florida, alleging violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 (Securities Act) and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. The Commission is seeking permanent injunctions and disgorgement.

The complaint alleges that Faller and Colon, while consultants to Evro Corporation, caused Evro Corporation to issue a false press release on August 23, 1993. The false press release stated that Evro had obtained a $30 million loan commitment to finance the development and sale of its products. The complaint alleges that Faller and Colon were to obtain the $30 million loan for Evro. Further, it alleges that prior to the issuance of the false release, Faller and Colon, in violation of their fiduciary duty owed to Evro Corporation and its shareholders, while in possession of material non-public information, each purchased 20,000 shares of Evro common stock which they sold shortly after the issuance of the release at profits of over 40%. The complaint further alleges that no loan was ever made to Evro Corporation and that Faller and Colon knew no loan would be made to Evro Corporation by the purported lender. [SEC v. James S. Faller and Rolan Colon, Civil Action No. 96-7125 CIV-Nesbitt, USDC, SD Fla.] (LR-15117)

JUDGMENTS ENTERED AGAINST CHARLES CHRISTOPHER AND FRANK ZITKEVITZ

The Commission announced that judgments of permanent injunction and other equitable relief were entered in United States District Court in Dallas, Texas, against Frank P. Zitkevitz (Zitkevitz) and Charles S. Christopher (Christopher) on October 3 and October 4, respectively. Zitkevitz and Christopher consented to the entry of the judgments without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint that they violated Sections 5(a), 5(c), and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, and Sections 9(a) and 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rules 10b-5 and 10b-6 thereunder, in a scheme to fraudulently promote, distribute, and manipulate the market for the securities of EnviroMent Holdings, Inc., a "penny stock" company based in Dallas.

The Court also ordered Christopher to pay disgorgement in the amount of $1,500,000, and Zitkevitz to pay disgorgement in the amount of $237,711, plus prejudgment interest of $100,252.88. Christopher's disgorgement amount was waived based on his demonstrated financial inability to pay, and the Court did not impose a civil money penalty based on his poor financial condition. Zitkevitz filed for protection under Chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, and the Commission will seek to enforce the disgorgement judgment in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.
