ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING AGAINST ROBERT KIELTY

The Commission today instituted a cease and desist proceeding pursuant to Section 21C of the Securities Exchange Act (Exchange Act) against Robert Kielty, the former General Counsel and Senior Vice President of American Continental Corporation (ACC), and accepted Kielty's Offer of Settlement pursuant to which he consented to the entry of an order requiring him to cease and desist from causing violations, and any future violations, of Sections 13(a) and 14(a) of the Exchange Act and Rules 12b-20, 13a-1, and 14a-9 thereunder.

The basis for the proceeding is Kielty's causation of ACC's failure to make certain required disclosures regarding its sale of a hotel to a limited partnership which included persons affiliated with ACC and its subsidiary, Lincoln Savings and Loan

Association. ACC omitted to disclose material information regarding violation of regulatory restrictions pertaining to the sale and related extensions of credit, and regarding certain transactions and indebtedness between ACC and certain related parties and entities. (Rel. 34-33807)

CIVIL ACTION FILED AGAINST HARRY HONE

The Commission announced that on July 16, 1993 the Honorable Harold L. Murphy, U.S. District Judge for the Northern District of Georgia, issued a final judgment as to defendant Jimmie F. Straw (Straw). The final judgment orders Straw to disgorge $19,965,755 plus prejudgment interest, but waives payment based on Straw's demonstrated inability to pay. The final judgment also notes the appropriateness of but does not impose civil penalties. Straw consented to the relief without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint. Straw was previously enjoined from violating Sections 5(a), 5(c) and 17(a) of the Securities Act and Section 10(b) of the Securities Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder.

The Commission's first amended complaint, filed on September 4, 1992, alleges that Straw and others sold certificates of deposit and other securities issued by First American Bank Ltd. (FABL), a Mariana Islands "bank", through various misrepresentations and omissions. Among other things, investors were not informed of the true financial condition of FABL, which was insolvent. FABL, which was controlled by Straw, raised approximately $20 million from investors. [SEC v. Harry Hone, et al., Civil Action No. 4:92-CV-0056-HLM, N.D.GA.] (LR-14021)

COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST MIDWEST ADVISORY SERVICES, INC., AND JOHN ZAMMIT

The Commission announced the filing of a complaint on March 18 in the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota against Midwest Advisory Services, Inc. (Midwest Advisory), a registered investment adviser, and John P. Zammit (Zammit), Midwest Advisory's principal. The complaint alleges violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act, Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder, Sections 204, 206 and 207 of the Investment Advisers Act and Rules 204-1, 204-2, 206(4)-2 promulgated thereunder. The Commission seeks a permanent injunction against the defendants, other equitable relief and civil penalties.

The complaint alleges that from January 1989 of July 1992 the defendants fraudulently offered and sold unregistered securities in the form of limited partnership interests in a commodities trading partnership and a precious metals and foreign currency trading partnership. Additionally, the complaint alleges that the defendants made misrepresentations of and omitted to state material facts in connection with the offer and sale of the securities and used investor proceeds to make payments to earlier investors in a "Ponzi-like" fashion. The defendants raised at least $700,000 from approximately 80 investors. In addition, the complaint alleges that Midwest Advisory did not make and keep accurate books and records in connection with its business as an investment adviser, and that Midwest Advisory and Zammit made misrepresentations of and omitted to state material facts in Midwest Advisory's annual filings on Form ADV-S. [SEC v. Midwest Advisory Services, Inc., and John P. Zammit, USDC for the District of Minnesota, No. 3-94-Civ. 172] (LR-14022)

DEFENDANTS DONALD AND MINNIE BADER HELD IN CIVIL CONTEMPT

On March 7, Chief Judge Judith N. Keep of the United States District Court for the Southern District of California granted the Commission's motion for civil contempt against Donald and Minnie Bader for failure to pay disgorgement pursuant to the Court's May 20, 1993 and July 30, 1993 orders. The two defendants are ordered to pay a total of $1,377,442.64 in disgorgement, $1,015,168.55 in prejudgment interest and $56,068.60 in postjudgment interest, by April 6, 1994. If the defendants fail to comply, a fine of $500 against each defendant will commence on April 6, 1994, and continue until they make payment.

The complaint, filed August 16, 1990, charged the Baders and five other defendants with selling unregistered securities issued by Centre City Funding, Inc. (CCF), Financial Dimensions, Inc., American Financial Dimensions, Inc., an Iowa corporation, and American Financial Dimensions, Inc., a Colorado corporation. The proceeds from these offerings, totalling approximately $9 million, were to be used for CCF's factoring operations. The defendants were variously charged with making false and misleading statements to investors and misappropriating investor funds by engaging in a Ponzi-like scheme.

The final judgments of permanent injunction against all seven defendants, pursuant to their consents, were entered in 1990. [SEC v. Donald D. Bader, et al., Civ. Action No. 90-1135 K, LSP, S.D. Cal.] (LR-14023)

CIVIL ACTION FILED AGAINST SHIMON GIBORI AND HENRY VOGEL

The Securities and Exchange Commission announced the filing of a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia against Shimon Gibori, the founder and former chief executive officer and president of the now-defunct Gil-Med Industries, Inc., and Henry Vogel, a behavioral therapist residing in Lawrence, New York. The Commission seeks to enjoin Gibori and Vogel permanently from violating or aiding and abetting violations of Sections 17(a), 5(a) and 5(c) of the Securities Act, and Sections 10(b), 13(a) and 13(b) of the Securities Exchange Act and Rules 10b-5, 12b-20, 13a-1, 13a-11 and 13a-13 thereunder. The Commission seeks orders of disgorgement from Gibori and Vogel and further seeks civil penalties from Gibori and an order barring him from serving as an officer or director of any publicly held company.

The complaint alleges that Gil-Med, a small Illinois-based manufacturer and distributor of plastic medical products, initially offered its common stock to the public in March 1988. According to the complaint, Gibori caused Gil-Med's underwriter to "park" over twenty percent of its initial public offering in certain accounts in order to give the impression that the offering was successfully closed. Thereafter, Gibori used $705,000 of the offering proceeds from bona fide purchasers -- over half of the actual total -- to purchase, for $475,000, the parked Gil-Med stock and to purchase $230,000 of outstanding convertible Gil-Med debt securities. The complaint alleges that Gibori also misappropriated from other Gil-Med investors 320,000 shares of Gil-Med stock which he sold, without registration, for approximately $750,000. [SEC v. Shimon Gibori and Henry Vogel, U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, Civil Action No. 94 Civ. 0607, TPJ] (LR-14025)

RANDALL HUTCHENS PLEADS GUILTY TO SECURITIES FRAUD

The U.S. Attorney for the Central District of California and the Commission announced that on March 21, Randall Hutchens (Hutchens), pleaded guilty to four counts of securities fraud in connection with his offer and sale of nonexistent securities known as "Secured Collateralized Notes" (SCNs).

Hutchens was a registered investment adviser doing business through his company, Laguna Equities, Inc. (Laguna). The Information charges that from December 1990 to June 1992 Hutchens promoted the SCNs as interest-paying notes, similar to bank certificates of deposit, issued by insurance companies and made numerous false and fraudulent representations. In fact, Hutchens did not invest the funds as represented but instead transferred the funds to investment accounts which he controlled. Sentencing is scheduled for May 23.

In a related action brought by the Commission, Hutchens and Laguna were permanently enjoined in December 1992 from future violations of the antifraud provisions. Under the terms of the Final Judgment, Hutchens and Laguna paid partial disgorgement, resulting in a refund to investors of approximately 47% of their investment. In addition, the Final Judgment noted the appropriateness of maximum civil penalties. In an administrative proceeding, Hutchens' investment adviser registration was revoked and Hutchens and Laguna were barred from the securities industry. [U.S. v. Randall Craig Hutchens, CR 94-172, C.D. Cal] (LR-14020)

MORRIS ENGLISH IS FOUND GUILTY OF SECURITIES FRAUD

The United States Attorney for the Central District of California and the Securities and Exchange Commission announced that on March 16, after a jury trial, Morris D. English, Jr. (English), was found guilty of eight counts of securities fraud, six counts of mail fraud, ten counts of money laundering, five counts of bankruptcy fraud and one count of criminal contempt in connection with the offer and sale of fractionalized interests in trust deed investments by his former company, the Wellington Group. The guilty verdicts followed a ten week trial and over four weeks of jury deliberations.

According to the United States Attorney's Office, the evidence at trial showed that English defrauded over 1,500 investors, many of whom were retirees living in Southern California, out of more than $30 million. English promised investors that their money would be used to make short-term loans on real property to borrowers and, in return for the use of their money, investors would receive the 15% paid by the borrowers. In many instances, however, English failed to tell investors that the loans were never made and instead, misappropriated a portion of investors' funds for personal uses and to conduct a Ponzi scheme. Sentencing is scheduled for May 23, 1994. [U.S. v. Morris D. English, Jr., CR 93-474A-DT, C.D. Cal] (LR-14024)
