ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

INITIAL DECISION BARS MARTIN SLOATE FROM ASSOCIATION WITH ANY BROKER OR DEALER

Administrative Law Judge Glenn Robert Lawrence has issued an initial decision barring Martin B. Sloate from association with any broker or dealer with a right to reapply after one year. On June 30, 1993, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York enjoined Sloate, by consent, from future violations of Sections 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder.

Based on the injunction and disgorgement and the underlying facts of the complaint, Judge Lawrence found that the public interest warrants the bar. Among other actions it was found that Sloate, while a registered broker, engaged in an insider trading scheme in which he exploited non-public information concerning Shearson and American Express during 1981 and 1986. This information was found to have been provided to Sloate by a psychiatrist from one of his patients. (Initial Decision No. 50)

ORDER INSTITUTING PROCEEDINGS, MAKING FINDINGS AND IMPOSING REMEDIAL SANCTIONS AGAINST STELLAR MANAGEMENT, INC. AND RICHARD SCHMIDT

The Commission entered an Order Instituting Public Proceedings Pursuant to Sections 203(e), 203(f), 203(i), and 203(k) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions (Order) against Stellar Management, Inc. (SMI), a Naples, Florida based investment adviser registered with the Commission, and against Richard Alan Schmidt (Schmidt), SMI's president. The Commission simultaneously accepted the Respondents' Offer of Settlement whereby they consented to the entry of an Order containing findings, admitting certain findings and without admitting or denying the remaining findings therein, that during various periods from at least June 27, 1991 through the present, the Respondents violated the antifraud, recordkeeping, and reporting requirements of the Advisers Act and the rules thereunder.

The Order provides for remedial sanctions including: payment of a $5,000 money penalty; a cease and desist order; a censure; and an undertaking that the Respondents will retain an independent consultant to review and make recommendations regarding SMI's disclosure, recordkeeping and procedures to comply with the provisions of the Advisers Act, and, for a period of two years following the entry of the Order, to review any of SMI's advertising in advance of publication. The Respondents will comply with such recommendations. (Rel. IA-1416)

CEASE-AND-DESIST PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST JEFFREY COOPER

The Commission today announced the entry of an Order Instituting Public Administrative Proceedings against Jeffrey R. Cooper (Cooper) on June 6 pursuant to Section 21C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) to determine whether, among other things, Cooper violated Sections 10(a) and 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-21 thereunder [17 C.F.R. § 240.10b-21, originally adopted as 17 C.F.R. § 240.10b-21(T)].

The Order alleges that, with respect to five public offerings, Cooper sold securities short during the period after the registration statement was filed, but before the offered shares became publicly available, and subsequently covered his short positions with securities purchased in the public offerings, thereby violating Sections 10(a) and 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-21 thereunder. The Order alleges that, in total, Cooper realized illegal profits of approximately $9,730 from his unlawful trading. (Rel. 34-34164)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST FRANK MICHAEL OLIVER

The Commission has instituted administrative proceedings pursuant to Sections 15(b), 19(h) and 21(C) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Sections 203(e), 203(f), 203(i) and 203(k) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (Advisers Act), made findings and imposed a cease and desist order (Order) against Frank Michael Oliver (Oliver) of Clearwater, Florida. Oliver was the president and sole stockholder of Investors Southern Advisory, Inc. (Investors Southern), a now defunct investment adviser, registered with the Commission from July 1982 through November 1987.

The Commission has accepted an Offer of Settlement in which Oliver consents to the Commission's findings in the Order, without admitting or denying the Commission's findings therein, that Oliver willfully violated the antifraud provisions of the Advisers Act by falsely representing that Investors Southern was a registered investment adviser, when, in fact, it was not registered as such with the Commission.

The Order requires Oliver to cease and desist from committing or causing violations or any future violations of the antifraud provisions of the Advisers Act and orders Oliver to pay a civil penalty in the amount of $5,000. (Rel. 34-34165; IA-1417)

ORDER OF PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION IN PRIME BANK INVESTMENT CASE

The Commission announced that on May 27 United States District Judge Franklin D. Burgess entered an Order of Preliminary Injunction against North Pacific Investments, Inc., Stafford Y.L. Mew, and Morreon B. Rude. The Commission filed its complaint for injunctive relief against the defendants on March 9, 1994 in United States District Court for the Western District of Washington. The Order prohibits the defendants from further violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws while the case is pending, and follows upon the previously issued Order freezing all the assets of the defendants, entered March 23, 1994. [SEC v. North Pacific Investments, Inc., et al., C94-5115, WD Wa.] (LR-14121)

JUDGE RULES IN SEC v. HERBERT GROSBY, ET AL.

Following a three day bench trial, on May 13 Magistrate Judge John Paul Godich, of the U.S. District Court of the Southern District of Indiana, Indianapolis Division, signed an order finding that Defendants James A. Collins (Collins) and Dennis J. Eckert (Eckert) had not engaged in fraudulent sales practices as alleged by the Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) in a complaint filed on October 8, 1992. The Commission's complaint alleged that Collins and Eckert fraudulently induced investors to purchase speculative securities by making material misrepresentations and omissions regarding the risk of investing in such securities and sought to permanently enjoin Collins and Eckert from future violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. [SEC v. Herbert L. Grosby, James A. Collins, George R. Speckman, and Dennis J. Eckert, USDC SD IN, Indianapolis Division, Civil Action No. 92-1411] (LR-14122)
