COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

CHANGE IN THE MEETING: ADDITIONAL ITEM

The following item will be considered at an open meeting scheduled for Wednesday, June 29, at 10:00 a.m.:

The Commission will consider whether to issue an order approving a proposed Interpretation to the Rules of fair Practice of the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD) that would prohibit member firms that hold their own customer limit orders from trading ahead of those orders and would make trading in disregard of the prohibition a violation of just and equitable principles of trade. For further information, please contact Scott Kursman at (202) 942-0168.

At times, changes in Commission priorities require alterations in the scheduling of meeting items. For further information and to ascertain what, if any, matters have been added, deleted or postponed, please contact: Bruce Rosenblum at (202) 942-0500.

COMMUNIQUE ON PROGRESS AT COSRA MEETING

Today, the Commission released a communiqué describing the progress made at the Third Annual Meeting of the Council of Securities Regulators of the Americas (COSRA) which was held on June 23-24, 1994, in Quebec, Canada. At the meeting, COSRA adopted a precedent-setting, multilateral resolution on enforcement cooperation, which calls for nations in the region to render assistance to one another in the enforcement of their domestic securities laws.

COSRA also adopted a resolution and principles which commit COSRA members to establish and maintain mandatory systems for corporate disclosure. The principles set forth the purposes served by disclosure; when, what and how disclosure should be provided; and measures that should be undertaken to ensure adequate incentives for complying with disclosure requirements. (Press Rel. 94-57)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

SANCTIONS IMPOSED ON TRANS NATIONAL TRANSFER, INC. AND BRUCE ROGERS

The Commission has ordered Trans National Transfer, Inc. and Bruce H. Rogers of Salt Lake City, Utah to cease and desist from violating seven of the Commission's rules for registered transfer agents. Simultaneously, the Commission accepted Trans National's and Rogers' offer of settlement, in which each consents to the entry of the order without admitting or denving the findings contained in the order. The order makes findings that Trans National willfully violated, and Rogers caused the firm's violations of, transfer agent rules regarding lost and stolen securities certificates; employee fingerprint processing; retention of fingerprint records; amendments to the transfer agent registration form; filing of annual reports; maintenance of current control books; and standards for the acceptance of signature guarantees. The order censures Trans National and Rogers and requires them to cease and desist from violating or causing future violations of these provisions, as well as to pay a $5,000 civil money penalty, to comply with an undertaking to improve the firm's operating procedures related to each of the rule violations and to have an accountant report to the Commission regarding the firm's compliance with the corrective measures in the undertaking. (Rel. 34-34239)

FORMER COMMONWEALTH OFFICIAL SANCTIONED

The Commission issued an Order Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions by Default (Order) against Jason M. Chapnick (Chapnick) of Pompano Beach, Florida. Chapnick is the former treasurer and vice president of Commonwealth Savings and Loan Association of Florida (Commonwealth). The Order bars Chapnick from association with any broker, dealer, municipal securities dealer, investment adviser or investment company.

The Commission's Order found that Chapnick was permanently enjoined from violating the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws on November 4, 1992. The Order found that the complaint in the injunctive action alleged that Chapnick caused Commonwealth to file Forms 10-Q and 10-K between April 1985 and June 1988 that fraudulently overstated Commonwealth's stockholder's equity, net income and regulatory capital by material amounts ranging from $10 million to $33 million. The Order further found that the complaint alleged that, in breach of his fiduciary duty, Chapnick, while in possession of material, nonpublic information concerning Commonwealth's adverse financial condition, sold shares of Commonwealth common stock he beneficially owned to avoid losses of approximately $76,000. The Order found that Chapnick's alleged violations occurred while he was associated with CommVest Securities, Inc., a registered broker-dealer that was a wholly-owned subsidiary of Commonwealth. (Rel. 34-34240)

CIVIL ACTION AGAINST MCCARLEY & ASSOCIATES, INC. AND HAROLD MCCARLEY, JR.

The Commission announced that on June 13 the Honorable G. Ross Anderson, United States District Judge for the District of South Carolina, entered orders of final judgment against McCarley & Associates, Inc. (McCarley & Associates), a registered broker-dealer with its principal office located in Greenville, South Carolina, and its principal, Harold C. McCarley, Jr., (McCarley) ordering disgorgement of ill-gotten gains in the amount of $900,000. The orders were entered pursuant to the defendants' consents. The order as to McCarley also waived disgorgement and noted the appropriateness, but did not impose, civil penalties based upon a demonstrated inability to pay by him. The order as to McCarley & Associates waived disgorgement in excess of $11,000 based upon a demonstrated inability of the firm to pay beyond that amount. Orders which permanently enjoined McCarley & Associates and McCarley from violating, among others, the antifraud provisions, net capital provisions, and customer protection rule were entered by the Court on August 16, 1993. [SEC v. McCarley & Associates, Inc. and Harold C. McCarley Jr., Civil Action No. 6 93-2032 3, USDC, D.S.C.] (LR-14137)

ORDER GRANTING INJUNCTIONS AND OTHER RELIEF AGAINST MILTON PURYEAR, PURYEAR REALTY RESOURCES, INC. AND MILTON PURYEAR & CO.

Milton Puryear (Puryear), Puryear Realty Resources, Inc. (Puryear Realty), a company established by Puryear to invest in real estate, and Milton Puryear & Co. (Puryear & Co.), a sole proprietorship controlled by Puryear, were enjoined on June 7 by an Order of the Honorable John S. Martin, Jr. of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York from future violations of Sections 5(a), 5(b) and 17(a) of the Securities Act, and Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rules 10b-5 and 10b-9 thereunder. The Court also ordered Puryear barred from serving as an officer or director of any public company. The Court further ordered the defendants to disgorge a total of $2,331,360.17.

After a hearing at which Puryear testified in his own defense, Judge Martin found that the defendants willfully violated the registration provisions of the Securities Act and the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act. The Commission's complaint alleged that from November 1988 through October 1991 the defendants sold and delivered unregistered Puryear Realty securities to 439 investors in a public distribution involving newspaper and radio advertisements, raising approximately $1.6 million. The complaint also alleged that the defendants committed fraud in connection with these sales. [SEC v. Milton Puryear, et al., 93 Civ. 2559, JSM] (LR-14138)
