CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

PERMANENT INJUNCTIONS ENTERED AGAINST MICHAEL J. HANNAN AND INSTITUTIONAL CAPITAL GROWTH, INC.

The Atlanta Regional and Miami Branch Offices announced that on October 22 U.S. District Judge Kenneth Ryskamp, Southern District of Florida, entered Final Judgments of Permanent Injunction against Michael J. Hannan and Institutional Capital Growth, Inc., a registered investment adviser, both of North Palm Beach, Florida. Hannan is the president of Institutional and was the president of Island Resources, Inc., a New York corporation. Hannan and Institutional, without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint, consented to the Final Judgments.

Hannan's Final Judgment enjoins him from violating the antifraud provisions of the securities laws and the provisions of the Exchange Act which require the reporting of transactions in a security by officers and directors of the issuer, and further enjoins him from aiding and abetting violations of the reporting, books and records and accounting controls provisions of the Exchange Act, and the reporting provisions of the Investment Advisers Act. Institutional's Final Judgment enjoins it from violating the antifraud provisions of the securities laws and the reporting provisions of the Investment Advisers Act.

The complaint alleges that Hannan and Institutional misappropriated investment advisory clients' funds and engaged in a scheme to manipulate the price and activity of Island's common stock. (SEC v. Michael J. Hannan, et al., Civil Action No. 86-8542-CIV-RYSKAMP, SDFL). (LR-11287)

E. MICHAEL FURLONG SENTENCED

The Los Angeles Regional Office announced that following a plea of guilty to one count of securities fraud on October 20, E. Furlong's plea resulted from an indictment in which he and two other defendants were charged with manipulating the price of Abex, Ltd. common stock. According to the indictment, Furlong, a former stockholder at Union Securities in Pasadena, generated fictitious trading activity for Abex common stock by placing matched orders and purchasing shares in nominee accounts without making payment. The other two defendants also pled guilty and were sentenced earlier. (U.S. v. Lee Shrout, et al., CDCA, Cr. 85-628). (LR-11286)
