FORMAL ORDER OF INVESTIGATION ISSUED RE WASHINGTON PUBLIC POWER SUPPLY SYSTEM SECURITIES

The Commission issued a Formal Order of Investigation In the Matter of Transactions in Washington Public Power Supply Systems Securities.

In light of recent Ninth Circuit decisions, the Commission has ordered that this Formal Order of Investigation be made public and that all subpoenas issued in this investigation be made available to the public for review. The Commission, however, has further ordered that it will not attempt to identify "targets" in this investigation and will not give individual personal notice of the issuance of subpoenas to anyone other than the recipient of the subpoena. In view of the special circumstances of this case, the Commission believes that these procedures comply with applicable law.

All subpoenas issued in this investigation will be available for review at the Commission's Seattle Regional Office, Federal Building, Room 3040, 915 Second Ave., Seattle, Washington, and at the Commission's Washington, D.C. Office, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Public Reference Room, Room 1024, Washington, D.C. The Commission cautions that no inferences should be drawn with respect to those persons or entities to whom subpoenas are issued.

The Commission does not generally make its formal orders of investigation public, identify "targets" in its investigations, give notice of subpoenas to anyone other than the recipient of the subpoenas, or the recipient's counsel. Except for the above procedures concerning making the subpoenas publicly available and the Formal Order public, all other aspects of this investigation will remain non-public under the Commission's Rules Relating to Investigations, 17 CFR 203.1-203.8.

FUR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Public Reference Room at (202) 272-7450

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission today authorized the publication of the Formal Order of Investigation in this matter which will be published in the SEC Docket and the Federal Register.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

ALFRED C. RIZZO CITED

The Commission instituted administrative proceeding, under Sections 203(e) and (f) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, naming Aldred C. Rizzo of Albany, New York a respondent. The Proceedings allege that Rizzo wilfully violated the antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Section 206 of the Advisers Act in that he: (1) drafted and disseminated to the subscribers to the Dynamic Growth Letter an article about Major Exploration, Inc. without a reasonable independent basis for the investment advice therein; (2) authorized Major to reprint and disseminate the article about Major without a reasonable independent basis for the investment advice therein; and (3) failed to disclose that he was supposed to receive contemporaneous revenue from the issuer about which an article was written in the Dynamic Growth Letter, and that Rizzo wilfully violated Section 17(b) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 206 of the Advisers Act by failing to disclose that he was supposed to receive compensation for the rental of his mailing list to an issuer about whom an article was written in the Dynamic Growth Letter.

Simultaneous with the institution of these proceedings, Rizzo submitted an Offer of Settlement which was accepted by the Commission. Under the terms of the Offer of Settlement, Rizzo consented to the issuance of the Commission's Order without admitting or denying any of the facts or findings set forth therein. In accordance with his Offer of Settlement, the Commission ordered Rizzo to be censured and that he shall (1) within 30 days of the entry of the Order, adopt and implement, and thereafter maintain policies and procedures to ensure that, with respect to articles in the Dynamic Growth Letter which contain investment advice, he will have a reasonable independent basis after reasonable investigation for the advice, and (2) disclose to readers of the Dynamic Growth Letter when its author receives compensation for the rental of a mailing list to issuers about which articles are published in the Dynamic Growth Letter. (Rel. IA-897)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

CIVIL ACTION FILED AGAINST MAJOR EXPLORATION, INC.

The Commission filed a civil action on January 11 against Major Exploration, Inc., Robert J. Tonachio, both of San Antonio, Texas, Thomas F. Murphy of Jersey City, New Jersey, and Lanny R. Freeman of Corpus Christi, Texas, alleging violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws.

The Commission's complaint alleges that: starting on July 16, 1981, the defendants engaged in a course of conduct to induce persons to purchase securities of Major and affiliated limited partnerships and to enhance the market value of Major's securities by creating a false impression of the value of Major's oil and gas leases and the identity of its management; from about July 1981 to August 1982, the defendants caused the value of Major's common stock and the common stock of its principal shareholder, United American Energy, Inc., to be artificially increased by the dissemination of materially false and misleading information concerning Major's properties in Texas; and from about September 1, 1981 to the present, Tonachio profited from this increase in the market value of United's common stock by trading in that common stock.

Without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint, all of the defendants consented to the Final Judgments restraining and enjoining them from violating the antifraud provisions. Further, Tonachio has undertaken to pay $25,000 in cash and 50,000 shares of common stock of Major representing the profits from the sale of the common stock of United to be distributed as set forth in Tonachio's Consent. (SEC v. Major Exploration, Inc., et al., USDC DC, Civil Action No. 84-0085). (LR-10257)

CIVIL ACTION FILED AGAINST FREDERICK G. GAHAGAN

The Commission filed a civil action on January 11 against Frederick G. Gahagan of Locust Valley, New York, alleging violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws.

The Complaint alleges that: Gahagan was recruited in September 1981 to prepare a report concerning Major Exploration, Inc. of San Antonio, Texas; starting on October 26, 1981, Gahagan engaged in a course of conduct to induce persons to purchase securities of Major and to enhance the market value of Major's securities and, thereby the securities of its principal shareholder, United American Energy, Inc. by drafting a report concerning Major and its properties in Texas that was distributed by Major which created a false impression of the value of Major's oil and gas leases; and Gahagan profited from the artificial increase in the value of Major's and United's common stock and warrants that was caused, in part, by his drafting a report containing materially false and misleading information concerning Major's properties in Texas, by trading in the common stock and warrants of United while disseminating such false information.

Gahagan consented to a Final Judgment restraining and enjoining him from violating the antifraud provisions. Further, Gahagan has undertaken to pay to the U.S. Treasury $21,120.02 in cash representing the profits from the sale of the common stock and warrants of United. (SEC v. Frederick G. Gahagan, USDC DC, Civil Action No. 84-0086). (LR-10258)

SETTLEMENT OF CIVIL INJUNCTIVE ACTION RE SAMUEL NISSIM

The Commission today settled a civil injunctive action filed on September 29, 1983 against Samuel Nissim, the former chief executive officer of Nitron, Inc., located in Cupertino, California [see LR-10147, September 30, 1983]. Nissim, without admitting or denying any of the allegations in the complaint, consented to an order permanently enjoining him from violating certain reporting and antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The complaint charged that Nitron and Nissim, a director of Nitron who served as Nitron's president and chairman until 1983, filed or caused to be filed with the Commission and released or caused to be released to the public, materially false and misleading statements concerning the revenues to be derived by Nitron under a contract to manufacture video game arcades and cassettes for Astrocade, Inc., a privately-held seller of home video games, concerning the substance and purpose of certain agreements between Nitron and Astrocade, and concerning the financial condition of Nitron and Astrocade. Nitron was also charged with failing to timely file an annual report and several periodic reports with the Commission during 1982 and 1983.

The action respecting Nitron was settled on November 17, 1983 with the entry of an order permanently enjoining it from violations of certain antifraud and reporting provisions of the Exchange Act. (SEC v. Nitron, Inc. and Samuel Nissim, USDC DC, Civil Action No. 83-2872). (LR-10259)

RICHARD I. ROSENKRANZ ENJOINED

The Commission today announced the entry by Judge Charles Haight, U.S. District Judge in the Southern District of New York, of a permanent injunction against Richard I. Rosenkranz, an attorney with offices in Brooklyn, enjoining him from further violations of certain antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Rosenkranz consented to the permanent injunction without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations. The Commission's case is proceeding against the remaining defendants. (SEC v. Dominick Musella, et al., Civil Action No. 83-0342, S.D.N.Y., filed January 11, 1983). (LR-10260)
