
ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

GARY L. JACKSON, CPA, DISQUALIFIED FROM PRACTICE

Administrative Law Judge Jerome K. Soffer issued an initial decision permanently disqualifying Gary L. Jackson, a certified public accountant of San Francisco, California, from appearing or practicing before the Commission.

The sanction was imposed based upon findings that Jackson had been permanently enjoined by a court of competent jurisdiction by reason of his misconduct in aiding and abetting the violation of the provisions and rules of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 relating to the filing of registration statements. Specifically, the violations involved the submission of financial statements not prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and auditing standards in the valuation of assets, and in the failure to disclose material information.

JAY ERROLL WEINBERG BARRED

The Commission instituted public administrative proceedings under the Advisers Act against Jay Erroll Weinberg, also known as Jeffrey Paul Weinberg and Jay P. Smythe, of Manhasset, New York. The Commission simultaneously accepted an Offer of Settlement in which Weinberg, without admitting or denying the alleged violations, consented to findings of violations and a bar from association with any investment adviser.

The Commission found that Weinberg: wilfully violated the registration and antifraud provisions of the Advisers Act and the Commission's advertising rules by failing to register with the Commission as an investment adviser while publishing The Oxford Report, an investment advisory newsletter and telephone "hotline" service; disseminated blatantly false and misleading advertisements for The Oxford Report; and had been convicted in New York State of crimes involving larceny and fraud and permanently enjoined from further violations of the Advisers Act [SEC v. The Oxford Corporation and Jay Erroll Weinberg, 84 Civil 1833, SDNY]. (Rel. IA-918)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

THOMAS D. CARTER, OTHERS PERMANENTLY ENJOINED

The Los Angeles Regional Office announced that on June 26 the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California entered orders of permanent injunction and ancillary relief against Thomas D. Carter, The Carter Company, Tom Carter Enterprises, Inc., Concept 80, C. Fred Maurer and Fred Basom. The orders permanently enjoin the defendants from further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the Securities and Exchange Acts, and Concept 80 and Maurer from operating as an investment company without registration with the Commission. The orders further require Carter to submit an accounting, under oath, of the use of investors' funds and Concept 80 to return to its investors approximately $90,000. The defendants consented to the orders without admitting or denying any of the complaint's allegations.

The November 25, 1983 complaint alleges that from at least January 1982, the defendants raised in excess of $10 million from public investors through the fraudulent offer and sale of unregistered securities in a non-existent Carter medical factoring business. (SEC v. Thomas D. Carter, et al., Civil Action No. 83-7645 RJK, CD CA). (LR-10467)

ALFRED T. SALVATORE, JR., OTHERS ENJOINED

The New York Regional Office announced that on July 12 Judge Charles L. Brieant, U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, issued findings of fact and conclusions of law and signed final judgments by consent permanently enjoining Steven Crow and Kenneth Petricig from further violations of the antifraud and tender offer provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Judge Brieant issued similar findings and conclusions and signed a final judgment by consent as to Alfred T. Salvatore, Jr. on July 13.

Salvatore and Petricig were document proofreaders and Crow was a word processor operator and supervisor at the New York City law firm of Skadden Arps, Slate, Meagher and Flom. The findings of fact state that the defendants misappropriated confidential, material non-public information from Skadden Arps' computerized word processing files and from confidential documents submitted for proofreading. The defendants conveyed the information directly and indirectly to others for the purpose of trading securities in return for payments of certain sums of money.

In addition, Salvatore, Petricig and Crow consented to orders requiring them to disgorge $7,875, $4,100 and $500, respectively, representing payments made to them for improperly conveying the above-referenced information. (SEC v. Stephen G. Karanzalis, et al., 84 Civil 2070 [CLB] SDNY). (LR-10471)

COMPLAINT NAMES MAGIC MARKER INDUSTRIES, INC.

The Commission filed a civil injunctive action on July 23 against Magic Marker Industries, Inc. of Trenton, New Jersey. The complaint alleges violations of the reporting provisions of the securities laws and seeks a Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Equitable Relief.

The Commission alleges that Magic Marker, as part of a continuing course of violative conduct extending over several years, failed to file: its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended February 28, 1984, required to have been filed with the Commission by May 29, 1984; various periodic reports in a timely manner; and required Notifications of Late Filing on Form 12b-25. The Commission requests that the Court order Magic Marker to file its delinquent Annual Report and enjoin it from further violations of the reporting provisions of the securities laws. (SEC v. Magic Marker Industries, Inc., USDC DC, Civil Action No. 84-2265). (LR-10472)
