HARRY SCHAEFER SUSPENDED FOR 90 CALENDAR DAYS

The Commission announced that it has entered Findings and Order Imposing Remedial Sanctions against Harry Schaefer of Houston, Texas, in connection with an administrative proceeding. The Commission's Order was entered pursuant to an Offer of Settlement submitted by Schaefer wherein, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Order for Proceedings, he consented to findings of violations and the sanction imposed.

Upon consideration of the Order for Proceedings and the Offer of Settlement, the Commission found that on December 19, 1979, a permanent injunction was entered against Schaefer in SEC v. Hibbard & O'Connor Government Securities, Inc., et al., No. H-79-2512 (S.D. Tex.). Schaefer was enjoined from violating and aiding and abetting violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 (15 U.S.C. 78q(a)) and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78j(b)) and Rule 10b-5 thereunder (17 CFR 240.10b-5). Schaefer consented to the entry of the injunction without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint.

The Commission further found that Schaefer wilfully violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Act and Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder as alleged in the Order for Proceedings.

Based on the above findings and the Offer of Settlement, Schaefer was suspended from association with any broker or dealer, investment adviser or investment company for a period of 90 calendar days effective December 20, 1982. (Rel. 34-19299)

JAMES R. OVERCASH PLEADS GUILTY

The United States Attorney for the Middle District of Alabama and the Atlanta Regional Office announced that on November 24 James Rufus Overcash of Lanett, Alabama, pled guilty to one count of selling unregistered securities and one count of mail fraud pursuant to a 14-count indictment returned against him on September 29, 1982. The indictment charges the defendant with six counts of securities fraud, five counts of mail fraud and three counts of selling unregistered securities in the form of investment contracts in connection with Overcash's operation of a Ponzi scheme. The indictment alleges, among other things, that Overcash had induced investors to forward money to him on the promise of receiving up to a 24 percent return on the funds invested for periods of 20 to 30 days and that he had told investors that six wealthy businessmen were associated with him in his investment plan; that the money invested with the defendant was forwarded to these businessmen to invest in high yield investments in industries such as oil and movies, which high return enabled the defendant in turn to pay a high return. None of these statements were true. The indictment charged that Overcash used funds invested for his personal benefit and deposited the remainder in a non-interest bearing checking account, repaying earlier investors with the funds received from later investors.

In addition to the above charges, the indictment alleged that Overcash continued operation of this scheme under the alias of "Charles L. Brooks" after having been permanently enjoined by the Honorable Myron H. Thompson, U.S. Judge for the Middle District of Alabama, on October 23, 1981, as a result of a prior civil action brought by the Commission. Overcash pled guilty to this count. In addition to the permanent injunction, the District Court previously appointed a receiver to liquidate assets in the name of J & R Mail Service, and imposed a constructive trust over Overcash's assets.

The Honorable Robert E. Varner, Chief U.S. District Judge for the Middle District of Alabama, in accepting Overcash's guilty plea, announced that sentencing is to take place in December. (U.S. v. James Rufus Overcash, a/k/a "Charles L. Brooks," individually and d/b/a J & R Mail Service, USDC MD AL, CR-82-12-E). (LR-9834)
