NA Not available.<sup>1</sup> Includes other races and non-Hispanic groups, not shown separately.<sup>2</sup> Beginning 2007, includes children living both with married and unmarried parents.<sup>3</sup> Beginning with the 2003 Current Population Survey (CPS), respondents could choose more than one race. Beginning 2005, data represent persons who selected this race group only and exclude persons reporting more than one race. The CPS prior to 2003 allowed respondents to report only one race group. See also comments on race in the text for this section.<sup>4</sup> Hispanic persons may be any race.

Table 68. Parents and Children in Stay-At-Home Parent Family Groups: 1995 to 2009

[In thousands (22,973 represents 22,973,000). Family groups with children include those families that maintain their own household (family households with own children); those that live in the home of a relative (related subfamilies); and those that live in the home of a nonrelative (unrelated subfamilies). Stay-at-home family groups are married-couple family groups with children under 15 where one parent is in the labor force all of the previous year and their spouse is out of the labor force for the entire year with the reason 'taking care of home and family.' Only married couples with children under 15 are included. Based on Current Population Survey; see Appendix III]
