NATIONAL WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE MONTH

AUGUST 2020

Join us for National Women's Suffrage Month

The Women's Suffrage Centennial Commission will commemorate 100 years of the 19th Amendment and women's constitutional right to vote with National Women's Suffrage Month throughout August! We hope you will join us in celebrating this monumental chapter of U.S. history through dozens of free virtual programs and events between Aug. 1 through Sept. 2.

The WSCC and the U.S. Senate have designated August 2020 as National Women's Suffrage Month, a month-long celebration honoring the history of women's fight for the vote.

Suffrage Centennial Podcasts

Rosario Dawson and Retta will co-host And Nothing Less

This week, the WSCC, the National Park Service, and public media organization PRX announced two new history-driven podcasts inspired by the courageous suffragists who worked to secure the right to vote for American women.

The podcasts will premiere on Wednesday, August 5. New episodes will be released weekly through September 16, featuring the untold stories of the women's suffrage movement and the generations of activists who championed equality. In And Nothing Less: The Untold Stories of Women's Fight for the Vote actresses Rosario Dawson and Retta will guide listeners through stories not often found in history books. The Magic Sash, hosted by gold medal gymnast and advocate Aly Raisman, is a historical fiction adventure for tweens in which an 11-year-old girl and boy journey back in time to meet iconic suffragists.

The banner features a dark background with a crowd of people. At the top, it says 'The Women's Suffrage Centennial Commission and Twitter present' with a Twitter logo and a centennial logo. The main title 'WOMEN'S FIGHT FOR THE VOTE' is in large, bold, pink letters. Below it, it says 'Celebrating 100 Years of the 19th Amendment' and 'August 17, 2020 at 12pm (ET)'. Three circular portraits of the speakers are shown at the bottom.

Dr. Carla Hayden
Librarian of Congress

Hillary Rodham Clinton

Elaine Weiss
Historian and Author

On August 17, 2020, the Women's Suffrage Centennial Commission and Twitter will present a live virtual event with former Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton commemorating 100 years of the 19th Amendment and women's right to vote. The event will feature a conversation between Secretary Clinton and Elaine Weiss, author of The Woman's Hour: The Great Fight to Win the Vote. Librarian of Congress Carla Hayden will moderate. Would you like to ask the panelists a question about the suffrage centennial or the history of women's fight for the ballot? Register below and submit your question on the registration form for a chance to hear it discussed on August 17!
