Join the Women's Suffrage Centennial Commission (WSCC) and the National Archives for a special virtual program, "100th Anniversary of Women Winning the Vote: Reflections on the 2020 Centennial" tomorrow, October 22 at 1pm (ET). Learn about the diversity and depth of centennial commemorations around the country, and enjoy a conversation with the bipartisan leadership of the WSCC as we discuss the ways in which the suffragists fought for equality and continue to inspire American leaders and changemakers toward a more perfect democracy.

Moderated by Deputy Archivist of the United States and WSCC Commissioner, Debra Steidel Wall, panelists include past and present WSCC leadership: Susan Combs, Former Assistant Secretary, U.S. Department of the Interior; Dr. Colleen Shogan, Senior Vice President, White House Historical Association; Kay Coles James, President of the Heritage Foundation; and Senator Barbara Mikulski (Ret.).
