Suffrage Spotlight: Alice Paul and Woodrow Wilson

This week we are taking a closer look at Alice Paul, President Woodrow Wilson, and the battles for liberty. The 1913 suffrage parade launched an epic eight-year, David-and-Goliath struggle between Paul and Wilson over the very definition of democracy and American values. Learn more in this week's blog on The Suff Buffs.

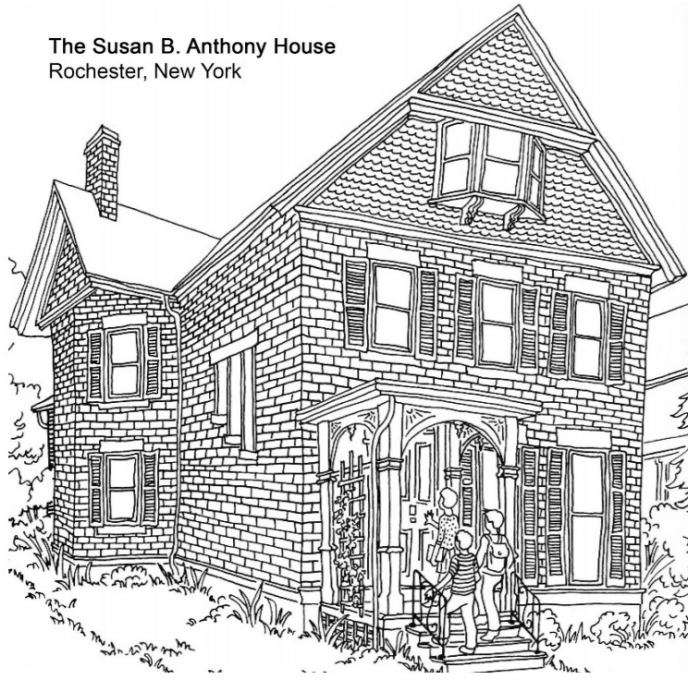

"There will never be a new world order until women are a part of it."
- Alice Paul
