Tennessee Ratification Celebration

On August 18, 1920, Tennessee became the 36th and final state needed to ratify the 19th Amendment into the U.S. Constitution. Tomorrow, the WSCC and its partners are celebrating this critical milestone of American democracy with a full day of virtual events and commemorations in honor of the state that sealed the deal on suffrage. Check out the line-up below, and tune in here.

Special Welcome from Senator Marsha Blackburn

Senator Blackburn (R-TN) will kick-off the day-long virtual celebration with a special welcome message at 8am CT/9am ET.

Herstory Time and Suffrage Tea

Mother-daughter team Senator Blackburn and Mary Morgan Ketchel join the WSCC for a special Herstory Time and Suffrage Tea reading and discussion of their book, Camilla Can Vote: Celebrating the Centennial of Women's Right to Vote, at 8:45am CT/9:45am ET.

Reenactment of the Tennessee Vote

The Tennessee General Assembly will reenact Tennessee's dramatic vote on ratification of the 19th Amendment. The reenactment will take place on the floor of the House chamber at the Tennessee State Capitol, livestreamed at 9:30am CT/10:30am ET.

Skydiving for Suffrage

Watch the livestream of the entire 11 person, all-female Highlight Pro Skydiving Team safely but boldly take to the skies above Nashville with brightly colored smoke, suffrage streamers and flags as they jump in celebration of the centennial at 10:00am CT/11:00am ET.

Keynote with Senator Marsha Blackburn

Senator Blackburn joins WSCC Executive Director, Anna Laymon, for a conversation on Tennessee's pivotal suffrage history at 11am CT/12pm ET.

Replay of Entire Program

In case you miss it in the morning, we'll be playing the entire program again from 2pm CT/3pm ET to 6pm CT/7pm ET.
