Tomorrow at 12pm(ET): Learn How to Become a Trailblazer

Join us tomorrow, Thursday, August 13 at 12pm(ET) for "Become a Trailblazer: Uncovering the Whole Story of Women's Suffrage." The National Votes for Women Trail is uncovering women's history sites across the United States, and we're sitting down with them tomorrow for a virtual brown bag lunch. Join us to learn about the Trail and to explore how you can get involved! Register here.

In 2019, the WSCC was excited to join forces with the National Votes for Women Trail to support their initiative to place historic roadside markers at significant suffrage history sites in all 50 states. Through an online interactive map and the nationwide trail of physical markers, this initiative marks a major step forward in addressing the under-representation of women in the mainstream narrative of American history. We are thrilled to have a group of brilliant women from the National Votes for Women Trail join us for tomorrow's conversation. Don't miss it!
