

1920

2020

womensvote100.org

Herstory Corner: Your At-Home Centennial Guide

Celebrating Father's Day

In honor of Father's Day, we are highlighting the "suffragents" of the suffrage movement. Imagine what it must have meant for "the thinking men of our country, the brains of our colleges, of commerce and literature," in suffrage leader Carrie Chapman Catt's phrase, to involve themselves with such gusto in a campaign designed to dilute their preeminence at the ballot box. Learn more on The Suff Buffs.

Read the blog

Check out our website and Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram for more resources and activities.

Black Women and the Ballot

Streaming tomorrow, June 19, at 7:30pm (ET), this virtual event will tell the story of Black Women and the Ballot. This collection of three short radio plays, presented by the American Slavery Project and featuring a performance by Tony winner Phylicia Rashad, will honor Juneteenth and the 100th anniversary of the 19th Amendment by exploring the “rebellions large and small that Black women mounted for the right to vote.”

Tune in

Building The Movement

First Lady Melania Trump calls for youth artwork submissions for Building the Movement: America's Youth Celebrate 100 Years of Women's Suffrage, an exhibit honoring the centennial anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment.

The exhibit will launch this August and will showcase artwork by young Americans depicting this historic milestone alongside images of women's suffrage parades, marches, and gatherings that took place at or around the White House. The WSCC is proud to work alongside the Office of the White House Curator and the Office of the First Lady as the official host of the Building the

Learn more

Rightfully Hers Pop-Up Exhibit

This free pop-up display, titled “Rightfully Hers,” tells the story of the relentless struggle of diverse activists throughout U.S. history to secure voting rights for all American women. Display this pop-up in 2020 and beyond to continue educating your community about the long history of political protest and the fight for equality in the United States. Reserve your pop-up by June 27. Contact popup@nara.gov or click here for more info.

Book your free pop-up

Visit

THE SUFF SHOP

Your Official Centennial Gear

Tubman,
Wells,
Terrell,
Truth &
Douglass.

Women's Suffrage Centennial Commission
P.O. Box 2020, Washington, DC 20013

Connect With Us

