Suffrage Spotlight: Mormonism & Suffrage

Kids Corner: Coloring Time

Did you know cats aren't just furry friends but also a symbol of the suffrage movement? In April 1916, suffragists Alice Burke and Nell Richardson hit the road with their cat going from city to city across the country to spread the word about suffrage.

Thanks to the National Park Service, you can color your very own Suffrage Cat! Introduce us to your new feline friend on social media.
