GENERAL INFORMATION

I. PURPOSE:

This electronic filing is required under 18 CFR §260.3 and §385.2011. It is designed to obtain, on a quarterly basis, monthly information concerning selected revenues and associated quantities.

II. WHO MUST FILE:

Each natural gas company, as defined in the Natural Gas Act and whose gas transported or stored for a fee exceeded 50 million Dth in each of the three previous calendar years, must prepare and file this information with the Commission in an electronic format.

III. WHAT TO SUBMIT:

Submit the data file on a MS-DOS formatted (or compatible) computer diskette or compact disc (CD) according to the electronic filing record formats prescribed herein. The diskette must have a label affixed to it stating the respondent's name and the name of the electronic file. The CD must be enclosed in an appropriate disc protector with a label affixed to the protector stating the respondent's name and the name of the file. Filings submitted on CD must also conform to the ISO 9660 standard for file directory systems.

The diskette or CD filings must be accompanied by a cover letter stating the content of the electronic filing. The cover letter must also include the subscription provided in Part 385.2005(a). All data submitted will be considered non-confidential and will be made available to the public upon request.

IV. WHEN TO SUBMIT:

Submit this report quarterly. The reports must adhere to the following schedule:

Report Period	Report Date

Office of the Secretary
Federal Energy Regulatory Commission
Washington, DC 20426

(2) Hand deliveries can be made to:

Office of the Secretary
Federal Energy Regulatory Commission
Room 1-A

Washington, DC 20426

You shall not be penalized for failure to respond to this collection of information unless the collection of information displays a valid OMB control number.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. The information required for this filing must be recorded on records in a "TAB" delimited format with the data ordered as specified in the Electronic Filing Format section of these instructions. The "TAB" delimiter is an ASCII 9 - decimal or 09 - hexadecimal character. Each logical record should be terminated by a carriage return (CR) character (ASCII character - 13 decimal, 0D - hexadecimal) and line feed (LF) character (ASCII character 10 - decimal, 0A - hexadecimal). These characters together are denoted as a hard return <hrt> and are entered on the record by pressing the "Enter" key.
An example of a "TAB" delimited file is provided on the pages following the prescribed electronic filing formats.

There are two important instructions regarding "TAB" delimited files:

- A. It is imperative the respondent realizes that the "TAB" characters are as important as the actual data coded onto the record. Without the correct "TAB" characters on the record to locate and distinguish separate data fields, the file cannot be data processed correctly. The respondent must be careful not to create the "TAB" delimited records by using a software program which merely converts the "TAB" characters into equivalent space characters (ASCII 0 - decimal or 00 - hexadecimal). Refer to Appendix A for further information on how to create a "TAB" delimited file using various common software packages.
- B. If a data element is not applicable, the data element must be omitted, but the associated "TAB" character for that item still must be recorded on the record. For example, assume a record consists of four data items: company name, report year, beginning balance, and ending balance. Further, assume that the beginning balance field is to be left blank. Then, the structure of the reported record would be as follows:

XYZ Natural Gas Company<TAB>1996<TAB><TAB>123456<hrt>

The double "TAB" characters denote a null (or blank) entry for the beginning balance data item on this record.

There is one alternative to this rule. You are not required to code multiple "TAB"s one after another to denote null data entries for the remainder of a record. In the previous example, if the only items that your company had data to report were the company name and year, the structure of the record could be:

XYZ Natural Gas Company<TAB>1996<TAB><TAB><TAB><hrt>

using the standard record convention or if using the alternative procedure. In either case, the record structure shows that the values for the beginning balance and ending balance were null. Please remember that you cannot use this method to record "0"s in data fields. Zeros are valid data entries and must be entered on the record where necessary.

2. All information required to be filed should be recorded in one file. The naming convention for this file is: "ENNNYYQX.TAB", where "E" is the file name indicator used for the Form No. 11 filing, "NNN" is the three-digit FERC pipeline code for the respondent (see item 6.A. for information on the Pipeline ID), "YY" is the two digit year, and "QX" is the two character designation for each quarterly submittal. "Q1" is the code for the calendar quarter from January-March, "Q2" for April-June, "Q3" for July-September, and "Q4" for October-December.

If it is necessary to submit revised reports, the file names should be "ENNNYYQX.TA1", "ENNNYYQX.TA2", etc., where ".TA1" indicates the first revision, ".TA2" the second revision, etc. The file name should be included in the transmittal letter accompanying the respondent's filing.

3. The definitions, instructions, and record type formats for this electronic filing specify explicitly the data items to be reported and the sequence for recording the information on the electronic media.
4. Report data as outlined in the Uniform System of Accounts for Natural Gas Companies (U.S. of A.) (18 CFR Part 201). Data reported in this filing must, when aggregated, be equal to the data reported on Form No. 2.
5. All fields must adhere to the following conventions for coding data on the electronic filing:
 - A. Numeric items do not require leading zeros, unless otherwise noted. Use a single "0" to report a zero value.
 - B. Indicate negative amounts with a "-" sign preceding the first nonzero digit reported.
 - C. If a data item is not applicable, its value must be omitted (blank) by using a second "TAB" delimiter immediately after the "TAB" delimiter of the previous data item.
 - D. Report dollar entries in thousands. Report quantities in thousands of dekatherms.

- E. Do not include commas or units ($, Dth) in reporting any numeric value.
- 5. Footnotes. Footnotes may be used to submit additional information about any data item(s) included in this report. A "Footnote" record is provided for this purpose.
- 6. Source of Codes.
 - A. Pipeline ID - Use the FERC three digit code corresponding to the respondent's pipeline. An updated list of three digit codes is provided on the Commission's web site at <http://www.ferc.gov/industries/gas/gen-info/pipecode.asp>. If your pipeline is not listed, call Tiquana Taylor at 202-502-8551 and one will be assigned.
 - B. Rate Schedule - Report the respondent's own designation for the rate schedule being reported. This rate schedule name must be entered exactly as it is reported in other reports to the Commission.

APPENDIX A

FILE CREATION HINTS

1. If you are using word processing software to create the electronic filing, make sure the package you select has the capability to convert a "TAB" character to an ASCII 9 - decimal or 09 - hexadecimal character, and does not just convert the "TAB" into a certain number of blank spaces.

Remember that each record must occupy only one line within the word processing document. Therefore, before you start entering data, determine the maximum length of the longest record in your filing, and establish any combination of fonts and paper size/orientation settings that will allow for that longest record to be entered on a single line. If the data for any record "wraps" to another line, then you must change the document settings to allow for more characters to be entered per line. Allowing the text to wrap to another line within the word processor document will create two separate records when the file is converted to a "TAB" delimited file.

Another suggestion you may find helpful is to set your tabs according to the length of the data fields for each record. This not only gives the appearance of order for each record type, but also permits you to visually edit the data for obvious errors, such as mixing character data in a numeric field.

- A. Windows Notepad or Wordpad: Create the individual records using the "TAB" key to separate the data items and the "Enter" key to end each record with a carriage return/line feed. In Notepad, the file will be saved in the correct format using the standard default settings. In Wordpad, save the file using the "File" / "Save As" and in the "Save As Type" drop-down box, select "Text Document".
- B. WordPerfect: Create the individual records using the "TAB" key to separate the data items and the "Enter" key to end each record with a carriage return/line feed. Save the file using the "File" / "Save As" / "ASCII Generic Word Processor (DOS)" commands.
- C. Microsoft Word: Create the individual records using the "TAB" key to separate the data items and the "Enter" key to end each record with a carriage return/line feed. Save the file using the "File" / "Save As" and in the "Save As Type" drop-down box, select "Plain Text".

2. If using a spreadsheet program to create the electronic filing, make sure that it can save the spreadsheet as a "TAB" delimited file. The spreadsheet software that staff has accessibility to, and has found capable of saving "TAB" delimited files, is Microsoft Excel. Create the individual records using the spreadsheet column cells to separate the data items and rows for each record. Save the file using the "File" / "Save As" and in the "Save As Type" drop-down box, select "Text (Tab delimited)".
3. To test whether or not you have truly created a "TAB" delimited file, read the file into a word processor program and change the "TAB" settings of the document. If the text from the delimited file changes with the new "TAB" settings, then the original file you created was in a "TAB" delimited format.
